A pause to refresh

Another year has folded itself and drifted away. With the memory of that eventful year still in our minds, we, the students of Arnold High School, readily await the future. Those of us who will not return to our halls next year are preparing ourselves for the responsibilities we will assume. This book is a collection of lasting memories that will follow us always.

THEY FURNISH US WITH

Board of Education

As we come to the end of another school year, we look back on the events of this past term. Along with those taking a backward glance is our Board of Education.

They might well feel proud for the large part they have played in the success of the school. For, without the pattern laid down for us by these seven interested citizens, the students, faculty, and administration would not have been able to cope with the multitude of problems that arose.

The weight of many problems was placed squarely on the shoulders of the school board. As always, they met the problems face on and solved them in a manner that must be tempered with careful judgment and a true interest in the welfare of all of us.

ALL THE PROPS VITAL TO OUR ACHIEVEMENT

Superintendent

Graduates of 1955:

Your school has placed in your hands the tools of education and also trained you in the skills necessary to build a successful life. This process has been taking place for the last dozen years and the big question now is: What will you do with these skills?

The work of the world is not yet completed. Today, in this great atomic age all of us stand on the threshold of a new era. Innumerable and ever widening horizons await those who have indomitable courage, persistence and faith to think, plan, work and climb. Who knows who will do the mountain-top thinking and planning in the days ahead? You have the skills! Why not YOU?

Principal

My first year as Principal of the Arnold High School has been most enjoyable. Students and teachers alike have displayed the type of leadership and cooperation that makes for a good school system.

It is my sincere desire that each member of the class of 1955 will live well, look only for the best in the world, and give only his best to the world—that his life may be an inspiration. Then and only then will each have achieved success.

Assistant Principal

Many years ago Emerson said: "Fear always springs from ignorance." Perhaps the fears with which many people are obsessed today are also the result of ignorance.

My wish for you is that you gird yourselves with knowledge and with such educational experiences, as will enable you to face the future with confidence, courage, and composure.

Really nice people?

1955 SENIORS

AND SO WE START OUR JOURNEY

"Seniors at last!" It seems like only yesterday that we first uttered that phrase, and here it is—graduation time already. Now, all that remains of our senior year is the memories—and what wonderful memories they are!

Who can ever forget "A Garden of Memories," our class dance, which brought back reminiscences of all our high school years? We really proved our thespian talents in the hilarious production, "Springtime for Patsy." The high spot of our senior year—the last time we would ever meet together as high school students—was a gala banquet, long to be remembered as the "Bon Voyage" to the class of 1955.

Behind us lie these pleasant memories of school life, bright with laughter and filled with pleasant activities. Ahead of us is our future for which we have been prepared. May it be as pleasant as the past.

We leave Arnold High School with a deep feeling of loyalty and a wish for a bright future.

Juniors now—upperclassmen and ready for the last hurdle. This class looks eagerly forward to the day when they will proudly take full command. Although that day is not too far distant, that short space of time represents a great deal of endeavor, hard work and earnest effort.

The annual junior class play was an outstanding achievement. The three act comedy, "Tonight We Dance," directed by Miss Virginia Bushnell, proved their acting ability to all.

Throughout the year the juniors worked hard to raise money for a successful prom. And successful it was! Thanks to those committees who worked diligently to present a prom that would overwhelm the seniors.

As seniors they hope to make a mark that will not easily be eclipsed by classes to follow. With the fine work they have displayed in the past, this seems within their grasp.

Any new experience usually presents a frustrated feeling to its participants. So it is with each sophomore group making its initial encounter into high school. In a short time, however, the Class of 1957 was orientated.

In the mid-year elections, G. Overly was elected president. Assisting him were J. Garbinski, vice-president; P. Kosky, secretary; and D. Terlinski, treasurer.

Many extra-curricular activities opened their membership roles to the youngest members of the student body, giving to the sophomores an active part in school life over and above their formal education. With the help of the senior high choir, their own contribution, the "Christmas Pageant", was a very successful play depicting the nativity. This and other activities proved their versatility.

The first year of experience has well prepared the Class of '57 for their new and important role next year.

Today's Freshmen Class of Arnold High School will be the Senior Class of 1958. This group of energetic students play an indispensable part in the school system. They participate in nearly all of the various clubs and organizations of the school.

The Freshmen elected officers midway through the school term. They were: Alvin Ansani, president; Robert Moresi, vice president; Jacqueline Nelson, secretary; Russell Makara, treasurer; Mrs. Ruth Sipes and Mrs. Jean Clark, class advisors.

Enthusiasm and pep made their annual magazine sales campaign a huge success. Willingness is the outstanding feature of this class. They untiringly support all high school projects, relieving much of the pressure from the upperclassmen.

With three years ahead of them, we can truly expect great achievements from this group.

Touring our country

THE GRADES

A PREVIEW OF COMING ATTRACTIONS

Always doing the work, yet seldom taking the glory are our seventh and eighth graders. Whenever a task is set before them or a request is made of them, these willing workers do their best to complete the job. They are the most dependable participants of every activity. Without their support, many of the social projects undertaken by their upper-classmen would be failures.

During the Christmas season, these students brighten up the Victoria Avenue building with all the traditional season's decorations. Christmas parties in all the rooms are an important part of the holiday festivities.

When the football season is in full swing, these peppy rooters take their place in the stands to cheer their team on to victory. After football season, their school spirit does not fade, but this spirit is spent in building the morale of our team. Their unlimited energy is the core of our cheering section. In addition to supporting every athletic activity, these youngsters form a large part of the crowd at every dance. Their high-caliber school spirit is certainly to be commended.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The well-known, hard-working, student-governing organization of our school is the Student Council. The objective of this organization is to help the students and lighten faculty burdens.

Among their many projects is the purchasing of a new trophy case to replace the out-dated one in our new building. The Student Council sold wallets which contributed greatly to this fund.

With the kind consideration of all students and faculty in the future as has been extended in the past, our Student Council will continue its climb uphill.

BROADCASTER

Out with the old and in with the new! In place of the usual mimeograph paper the Broadcaster, this year, is printed.

Under the able direction of Miss Virginia Bushnell, the advisor, students from grades ten, eleven, and twelve along with representatives from the junior high school comprise the Broadcaster Staff.

The by-word of the Broadcaster's Newsy Suzys and Sams is "Get the story!"

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

AS THE TWIG IS BENT, THE TREE IS INCLINED.

To be chosen for the National Honor Society a student must meet certain requirements—the first being scholarship. Although anyone in the top third of his respective class may be selected, only 15% of the graduating class are eligible for membership in the society. The next requirement for membership is service. The student must be of service to his school, his teachers, and his classmates. The third point a potential member is judged on is leadership. He must possess the ability to lead his classmates—mainly by setting the right example—in a way beneficial to his school and community. And last, but certainly not least, the new member must have a sound, clean-cut character—the kind of person any school would be proud to have on its roll. This year, as in previous years, the selection of members was made by a board of teachers. They judged all the pupils on the above points and chose those students they felt most deserving of this award.

The newly chosen members have been presented gold pins by the Student Council at a special assembly in their honor.

Senior High Choir

This year, along with a new room for practicing, this group seems to have gotten a new-found vitality.

The Senior High A Capella Choir got off to a royal start with a thrilling Christmas pageant, given jointly by them and the sophomore class. With the added incentive of a success behind them, the choir, again under the able direction of Miss Dorothy Ferrante, started rehearsals for their next program, this time an operetta, "Riding Down the Sky."

This, along with various assembly programs and participation in a choral festival, rounded out the year for the choir.

The choir is to be congratulated for the splendid job they did.

Junior High Choir

If you happened to walk into Victoria Avenue building sometime during the seventh period this year, you most probably have heard our Junior High Choir practicing earnestly for one of their many successful programs.

Along with the Junior High Band the group enthusiastically tackled their Christmas Concert. Besides their regular group arrangement several specialties were featured. The Girls Double Sextet and a soloist shared the honors of a successful program.

The choir's next big project was their annual spring concert which, everyone agreed, added another star in their crown.

A busy year of activities came pleasantly to an end with an exchange program and a party.

SENIOR BAND

This organization began rehearsing in August for the busy season ahead of them. Parades and assemblies were just a part of their strenuous schedule. This troupe faithfully attended every home performance of the football team and awed the public at half time with their fine playing and precision marching.

A very new and original pre-game routine was shown to the public at our first home football game. It was a military drill performed to the "Gillette" song.

Diligent practice has achieved for our band and "Lionettes" an outstanding name in the valley. Mr. Albert Moses, our capable band director specially arranged the music and dance routines that were ably performed for the audience. Student band directors, the lead majorettes, and our drum majorette were instrumental in assisting Mr. Moses to carry out his well-organized plans for the half-time performances.

The routines done to the hit tunes of the day were, "Sh-Boom," "The Little Shoemaker," and "Hernando's Hideaway," which were done without the stadium lights.

To close a fine year of brilliant performances, the group repeated by special request "The Birth of the Blues" which they had done the year before.

The public thoroughly enjoyed our senior band and majorettes.

The loveliest night of the year!

"Punch!"

Excited couples entered the Junior-Senior Prom held at the Orchard Avenue Gym on May 15, 1954, through a beautiful archway of silver.

Stepping out of the archway and onto the floor, the couples were presented with unique dance programs. To the left of the dance floor were the artistically decorated tables. Ferns, flowers, and candles made up the centerpieces on these tables, which overlooked a background of the New York skyline.

The gym was completely transfigured to fit the Juniors theme, "Stairway to the Stars." Indirect lighting was used to give the room a soft touch, while a spotlight shone on the silhouettes of a girl and boy advancing up the "Stairway to the Stars." Paper streamers gave the illusion of a drop-ceiling.

A white picket fence enclosed the Tommy Carlyn Orchestra, which provided lilting melodies to the huge crowd. The girls with their flowing gowns and the boys with their tux suits glided smoothly across the floor to the music.

At the close of the dance, a delicious turkey dinner was served to the guests.

The Junior Class, along with their class advisors Mrs. Josephine Lecnar and Mr. Walter Sakaluk, gave their guests a wonderful night to remember always.

THE PROM

YEA! TEAM!

NOTHING GREAT WAS EVER ACHIEVED WITHOUT ENTHUSIASM

Roar Lions—Victory! At every game this mighty rhythmic roar throbs through the air, carrying to the fighting Lions the student body's message of encouragement. This concentrated cheering is the result of the constant hard work of six cheerleaders—two seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores—whose job is to keep the student body pulling for that Arnold victory. Their job is simple while the team is out in front, but the difficult time comes when the Lions are on the short end of the scoring.

Regardless of the weather—on gridiron or basketball court; regardless of the score—these six girls must be out there to inspire that cheering. They contribute much to the success of the contest. In victory or defeat the cheerleaders must never give up, must never lose heart, must never stop fighting—but continue to play their game—clean and hard—from the sidelines.

Much of the success of these trim young ladies in their bright blue skirts and sparkling white sweaters is due to many hours of hard work on the part of their advisor, Miss Nancy Martin.

In behalf of the entire student body, the Arlion Staff extends to the cheerleaders and their advisor a sincere "thank you" for the fine job done by them during the athletic season of 1954 and 1955.

VARSITY

Thanks to the football know-how of Coach Alex Tannas and his assistants, Mario Peretti and Frank Martin, a relatively green team was able to mold into a tight-knit unit, which made sportsmanship its key word.

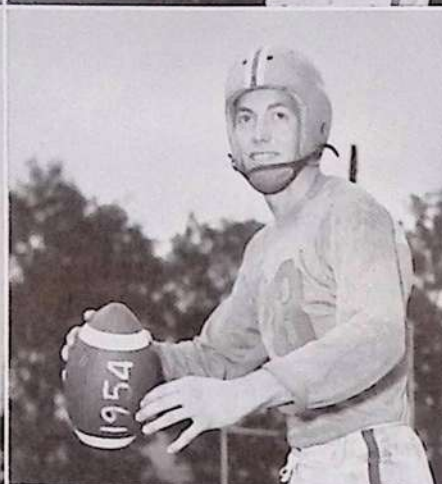

After having spent three weeks in pre-season training, the team jumped off to a snappy 27-6 victory over Millvale. The following week the Tannasmen brought down the house with a 6-6 tie against a highly rated and much larger West Deer team to continue the famous Arnold-West Deer jinx. Keeping a steady pace, the Lions went on to tie the Yellow Jackets of Freeport and down the Red Cats from Tarentum. The team lost the next five games only after they had given their all.

The season couldn't possibly be measured in wins and losses, since the team play and sportsmanship which the boys learned is indispensable. We are sorry to say that next year we will miss the talents of Rich Clark, Tom Frickanisce, Ron Tusing, Dick English, Ted Pryor, Ron Albera, Joe Corsello, Don Campbell, Dave Silvis, Don Bush, Ron Varesco, and J. Miller.

GRIDMEN

"IF THEY CAN'T DO IT, NOBODY CAN!"

JUNIOR VARSITY

Under the tutoring of Mario Peretti, the Little Lions displayed in their games an aggressiveness that was hard to beat. Every day they tirelessly and faithfully went through their routine, practicing and drilling in order that they might some day have a chance to represent Arnold on the gridiron. We honestly believe that if this scrappy, talented bunch keeps up its determined ways, the future opponents of Arnold High School had better be on their guard.

JUNIOR HIGH

If the enthusiasm of our Junior High team is any sign of the future, then Arnold's prospects look very bright indeed. During the season these boys, coached by Mario Peretti, carried on a rigid training program, consisting of calisthenics and fundamentals. Though they never actually participated in any football games, the boys never ceased to turn out faithfully at practice. Our hats go off to young athletes who will someday make a fine varsity crew.

BASKETBALL

Arnold High, under the tutelage of veteran Coach Larry McGuire, experienced for the first time in 5 years a season which did not bring the sectional championship to the school. The team also experienced a year in which it competed for sectional honors with its traditional rival, Ken Hi, and a powerful Ford City and Butler team.

Having won 9 straight games, the Lions were very impressive in their exhibition campaign. Two of these were sectional wins against Vandergrift and Kittanning. In the third sectional encounter they met the strong and highly favored Ken Hi team. The jam-packed crowd witnessed the perennial thrill that these two teams always offer. The outcome of the game was not decided until seconds before the game ended with Arnold on the short end by a 44-42 score. The Lions, a surprise team in the section all year, threw the 1-A race into a three-way scramble with a whopping 50-48 upset over Ford City in an overtime session.

Although pitted against the best, the Lions were very much respected by their opponents. In every game, win or lose, they played their hearts out. Above all they displayed good, clean sportsmanship and gained respect from the fans. The entire squad and coaching staff deserve congratulations for a job well done.

BASEBALL

IN THE SPRING - - - ON THE DIAMOND

Although Arnold's baseball season did not open with the traditional "crack," Coach Phillips' boys were quick to catch the pace and prove their worth among the local high school teams. The enthusiasm of the boys only goes to show why the sport has become the national pastime. Every day, Valley Camp resounded with the crack of bats and the thud of the ball on gloves. Though the departed seniors will be missed, we are sure the boys will come through, as always, for their Old Alma Mater.

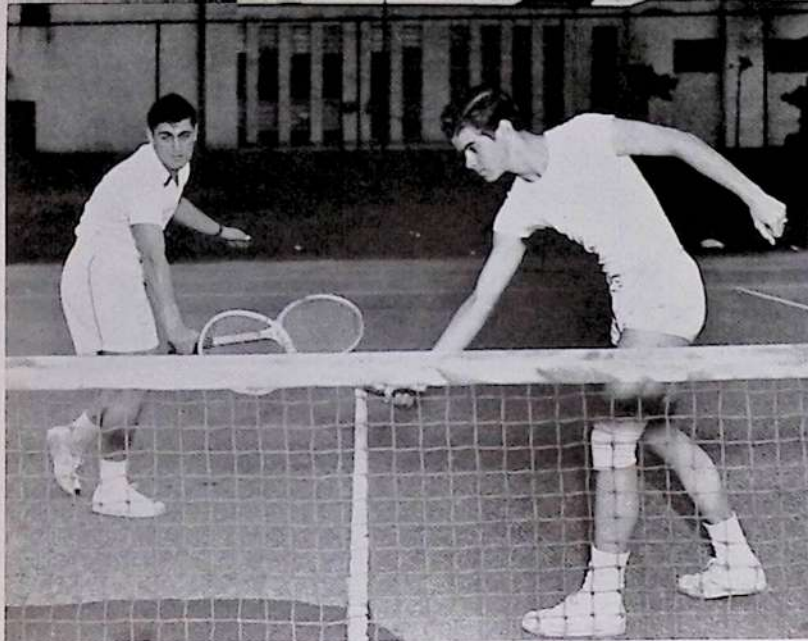

It's a hit!

Mr. Oliver Phillips

Having started the season slowly, the Arnold racquet squad, under the tutoring of Mr. G. McLaughlin, hit its stride about mid-season. With such stalwart seniors as Don Isaac, Patsy Tallerico, and Tom Campbell, and a few underclassmen, the team was able to inflict telling blows on its opponents, noticeably on Ken Hi, its traditional rival, whom it defeated twice during the year.

Although one of the lesser emphasized sports, it is far from unpopular and has done much in its own way in being recognized at Arnold High School.

THE ARNOLD LIONS

CODE OF ETHICS

To show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

To seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

To remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards my fellow man, to resolve such doubt against myself.

To hold friendship as an end and not a means—To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, and to give to them my unswerving loyalty in work, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor, and means.

To aid my fellow man by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

To be careful with my criticisms and liberal with my praise, to build up and not destroy.
