Thank You

For Being a Friend

Thank You for Being a Friend

Oh no, Willy, not another blank test!

Another one of Mr. Peresie's helpful nuts

Look, Coach, he's the one who hit me.

Is this what happens everyday in shop?

There's a fly at the end of my finger.

Traveled Down the Road and Back Again

There's a camera at the top of the stairs.

About last night . . . ?

Another day in the exciting Junior High

Let's do it one more time.

Smile, it's not all that bad.

Your Heart Is True

"Love is a many splendid thing."

"I can't keep giving you advances on your allowance like this. It'll run me broke!"

"If I knew this was coming, I'd win a blue ribbon more often."

Stand Up and Take a Bow

"I'd hate to meet up with them in a dark alley."

"Thank God I'm a Country Boy."

"Don't you dig our new threads?"

"Smile pretty now!"

I'm Not Ashamed to Say

Heather pours it on.

You thought I didn't see you.

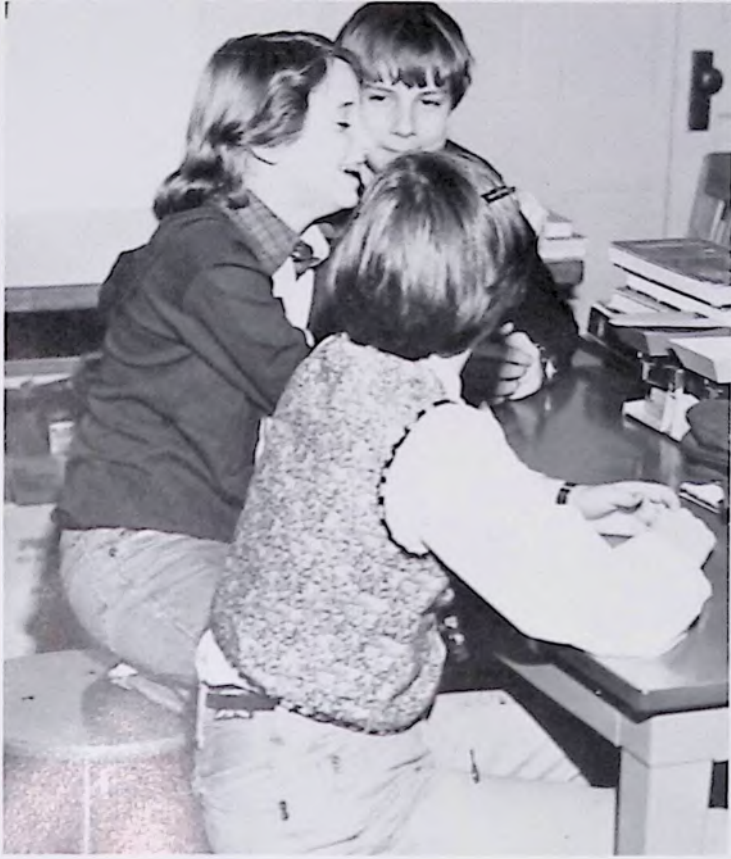

Raise that score 6 more!

Which girl came with this book?

I Hope It Will Always Stay This Way

Our band has spirit.

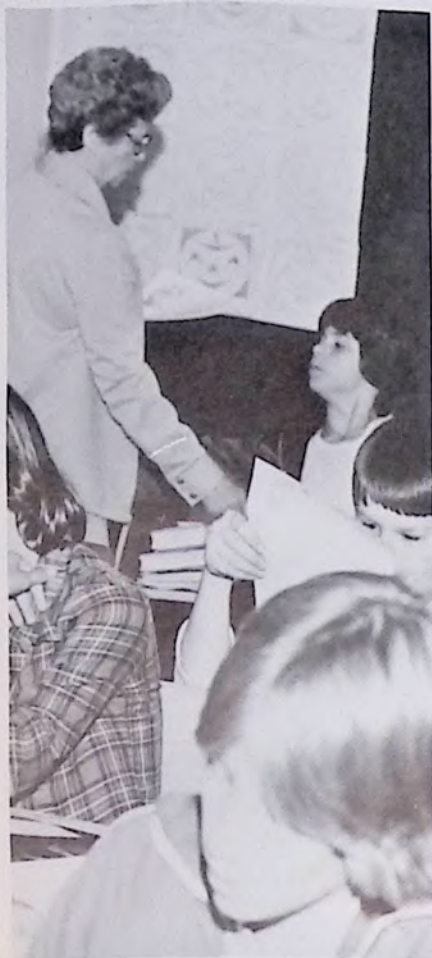

Really, it wasn't that funny.

I'd rather be eating.

You're a Pal

You have to work hard to pass math!

I can't believe you made it.

In the mood for a party? Invite Jerry Graham—'79 class partier!

And a Confidant

"I wonder if this store will give me the cash instead of the goods?"

"Thank you, Mrs. Shields."

"If I've told you once, I've told you a thousand times, you're not too short to play football."

"There's a spot on your tie."

"We're sisters, can't you tell?"

Coaching Staff

This was the year of the Jackets. Although our team did not travel to Pitt Stadium, there was a lot of first class football action. The Yellow Jackets journeyed to Neshannock to capture a 27-7 debut win. Then came archrival Knock where the Jackets picked up their second win. Our first home game with Deer Lakes came as a 27-0 victory. Burrell was upset 14-0 preceeding the 53-0 romp over Springdale the following week. Ford City gave in to a 28-6 defeat. On October 13, the Yellow Jackets shut out Apollo-Ridge 17-0. Senior Night brought Kittanning to a stand still as Freeport dominated 25-7. The two undefeated teams in the Alle-Kiski Valley clashed on October 27, when the Yellow Jackets proved to the Riverview Raiders that we were still number 1 by snatching a 14-0 victory.

Kevin Van Tine and Chuck Toy sketch a design in art c'ass.

I wish the bell would soon ring.

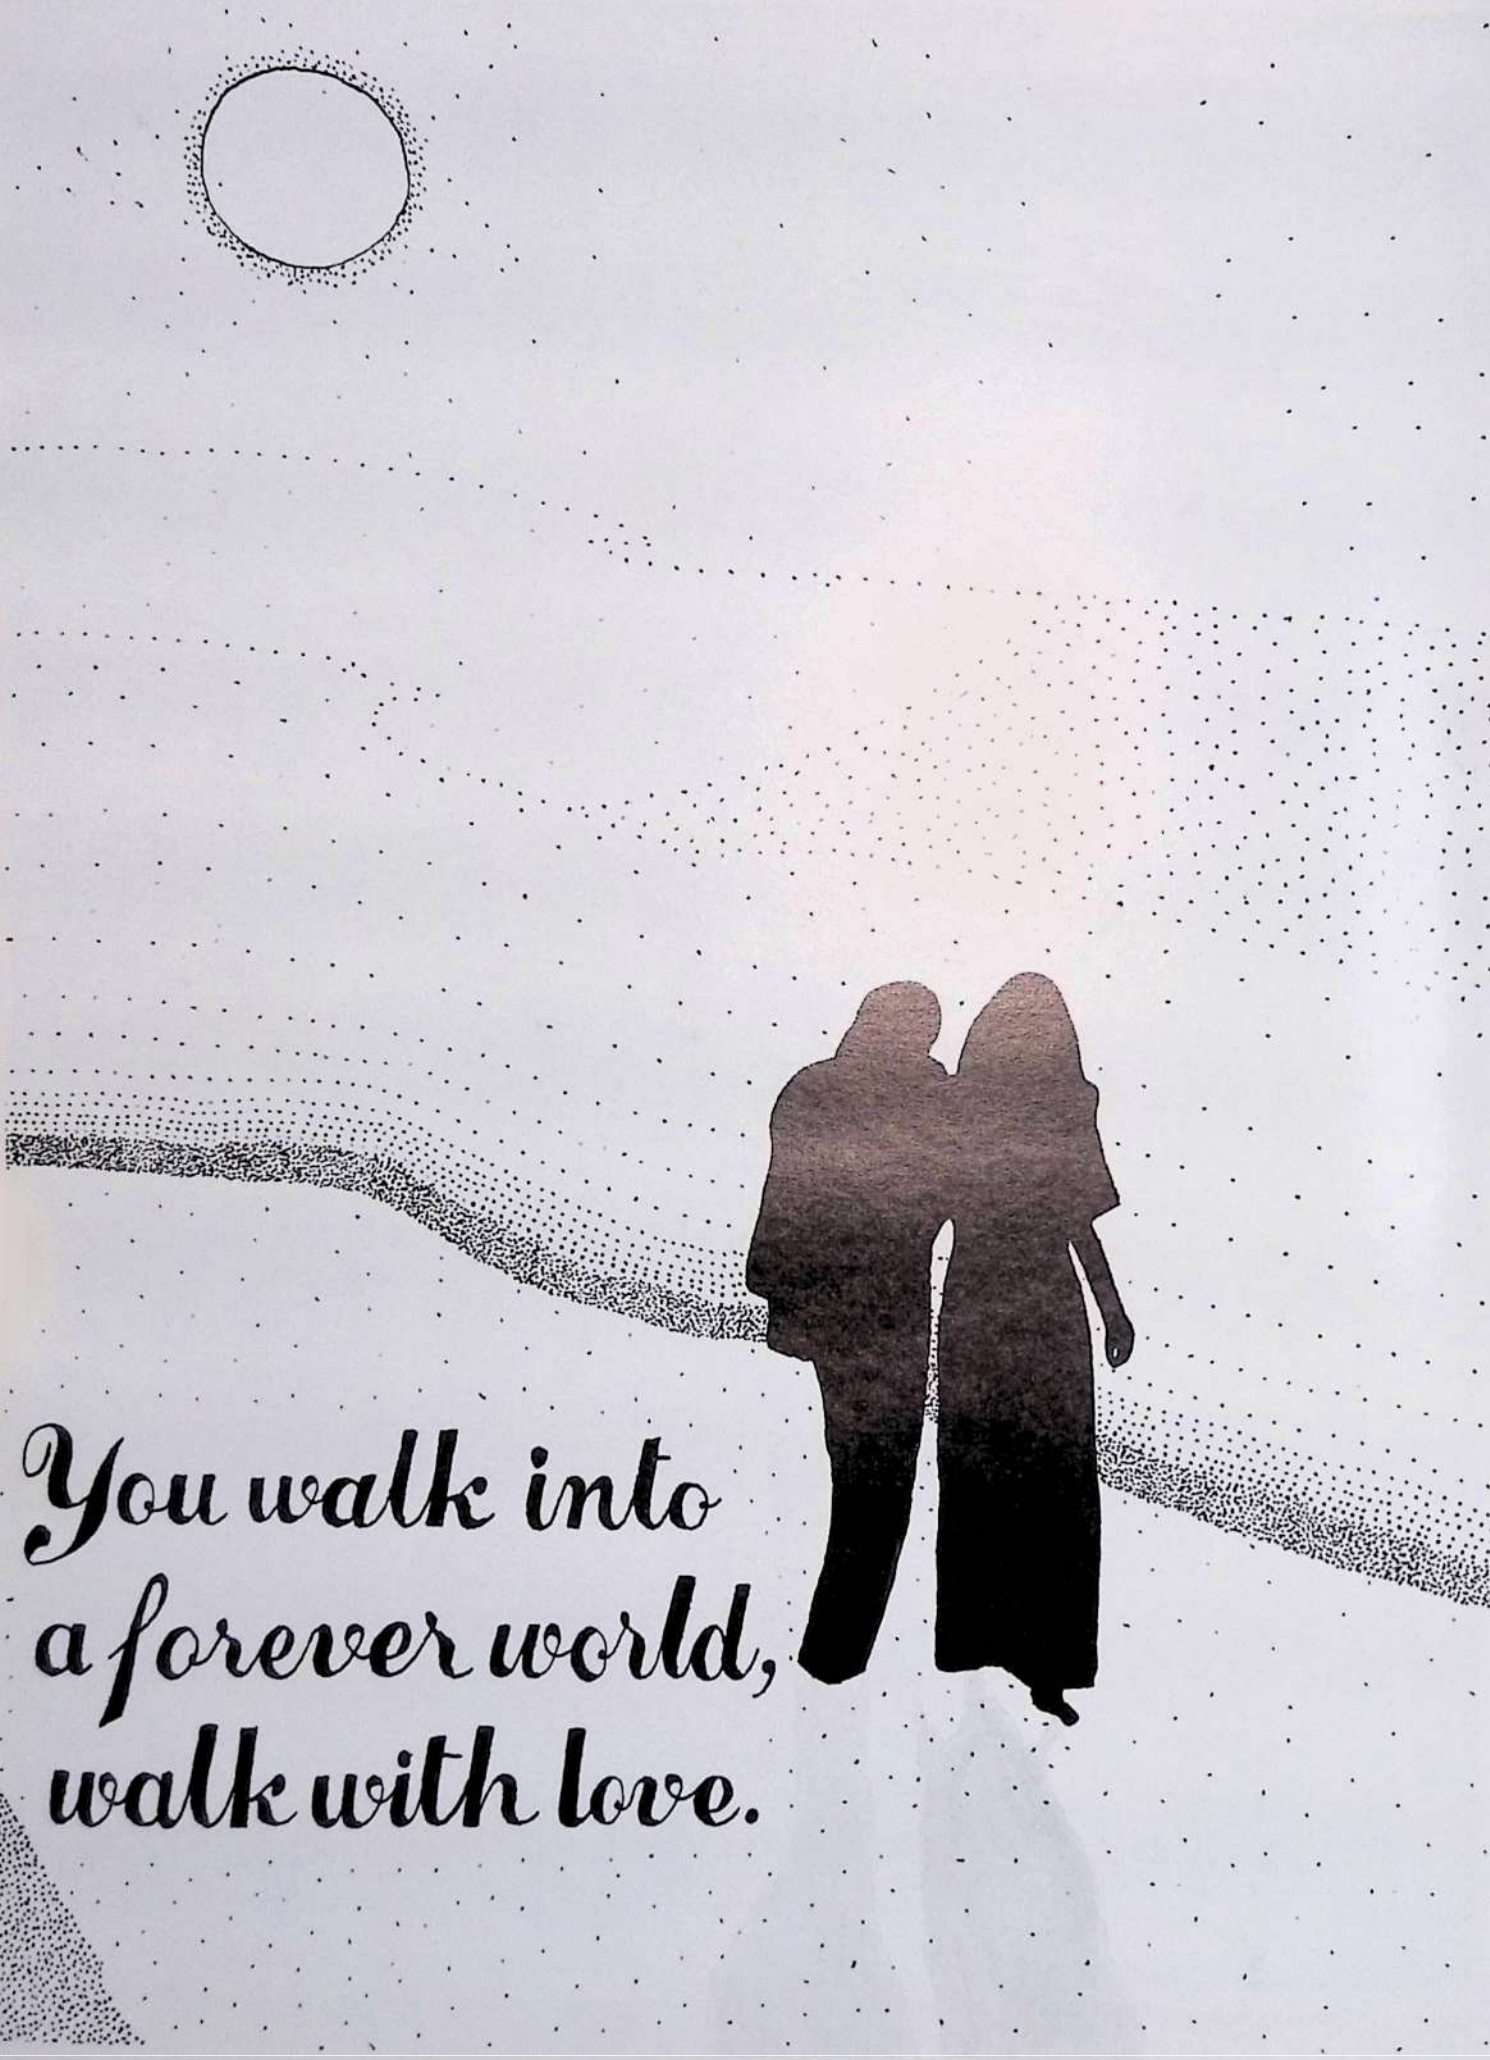

"I don't think that I should have done that."

Some juniors leisurely read in the library during their study hall.

Fellow Classmates:

Looking back on our high school years, it brings to mind many good times. Although we're not able to relive these moments again, we can at least have the memories to recall. But, since we cannot live in the past, we must move on and plan for the future.

Upon leaving F.H.S., we can have a feeling of pride and satisfaction because of our varied accomplishments in the classroom as well as participating in the many extracurricular activities connected with the school.

I would like to extend my best wishes to the future graduating classes and wish my fellow seniors good luck, success, and happiness in all you do.

Sincerely,

Jeff Coward
Senior Class President

Senior

On Friday, October 20, a balmy evening set in at the Freeport Boro Field. Shades of blue and gold dotted the bleachers. Feelings of sentiment, joy, and excitement filled the air. It was Senior Night 1979. The football players, managers, and cheerleaders were recognized with their parents before the kickoff. When the halftime ceremonies began, the score stood 7-6 in Kittanning's favor. The F.H.S. Band performed a vibrant show playing THEME FROM MASH, and the Drill Team was featured, marching to THE THEME FROM ROCKY. A dance routine was performed by the majorettes together with the cheerleaders. As the band formed a 79, the senior band, drill team, majorettes, and band managers were introduced with their parents. The evening's excitement motivated the Jackets to finish their last home game with a 25-7 win over Kittanning.

So long F.H.S.

No one will ever realize the pain involved when you are directing a band with a pulled shoulder muscle.

I think I'm stuck.

It's almost over, Maggie.

Think it's broken, Dad?

Night

Love WILL keep us together.

"Don't walk so fast, Mom!"

"I can't drop it. Everyone is watching."

Mike shows his love and appreciation for their help through the years.

Too Bad, Curt!

"I can't believe it's finally over!"

The White Star Club was the scene of the 1979 Senior Banquet on Friday evening, March 9, at 6:00 p.m. After Senior Class Treasurer Shelly Shick pronounced the invocation, a buffet dinner of barbequed chicken, rigatoni, toss salad, assorted vegetables, cold cuts, rolls and butter, coffee, milk, and tea were served. Such personality awards as class partier, class clown, best dressed, most artistic, most attractive, class flirt, most athletic, friendliest, most popular, most romantic, most studious, most likely to succeed, class optimist, class pessimist, best actor and actress, most talkative, class gearhead, most musically inclined, most timid, most ambitious, and class jock were awarded by the class officers following the dinner.

Senior Class President Jeff Coward shakes hands with Norman Frederick, the most popular boy in the Senior Class.

Elected class partier and class clown is June Parsons.

"Don't forget to drink the milk, boys!"

Carrie Stewart accepts the girl's award for class flirt.

Elected male class flirt is Steve Brnik.

The Most Artistic Award went to Brenda Edwards.

Banquet

Lisa Lepkowski smiles as she accepts the Most Popular Girl Award.

The friendliest guy in the class is Rodney Friend.

The most studious girl in the class is Dawn Van Tine.

The most romantic senior boy is Eugene McBee.

"Give me a piece of cheese while you're at it, partner."

The Thirty-First Annual

Two hundred fourteen diplomas were awarded at Freeport's thirty-first commencement on Friday, May 25, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. The graduates were guided to their chairs by Processional Guides Junior Class President Renee Stewart and Junior Class Secretary Vicki Bettermann while the Commencement Band played the processional POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE. Following Reverend Paul Frank's invocation, Senior Speakers Jeff Coward spoke on the subject The Past Is Ours to Remember and Lisa Lepkowski spoke on the subject The Future Is Ours to Seek. After the commencement Choir sang TIMES OF YOUR LIVES, Senior High School Principal Mr. Williamson certified the Class of '79 and stated that almost  $\frac{1}{2}$  are going on to some type of higher education, 6% are joining the armed forces, 40% are seeking employment, and 6% are going to be homemakers. School President Mr. Harold Sweeney accepted Mr. Williamson's certification of the graduates. Former School Board President Mr. Donald Campbell and School Board President Mr. Harold Sweeney presented the diplomas to each graduate, Renee Stewart and Vicki Bettermann gave a yellow rose to each senior girl, and Senior Class President Jeff Coward acknowledged the diplomas. Following the class's singing of the Alma Mater, the graduates recessed out of the gym following Reverend Paul Frank's benediction.

Senior Class President Jeff Coward addresses his fellow classmates.

Senior Speaker Lisa Lepkowski speaks on the subject The Future Is Ours to Seek.

Senior High School Principal Mr. David G. Williamson certifies the Class of '79.

Commencement Exercises

History Graduate Todd Drumm is congratulated by School Board Representative Mr. Donald Campbell.

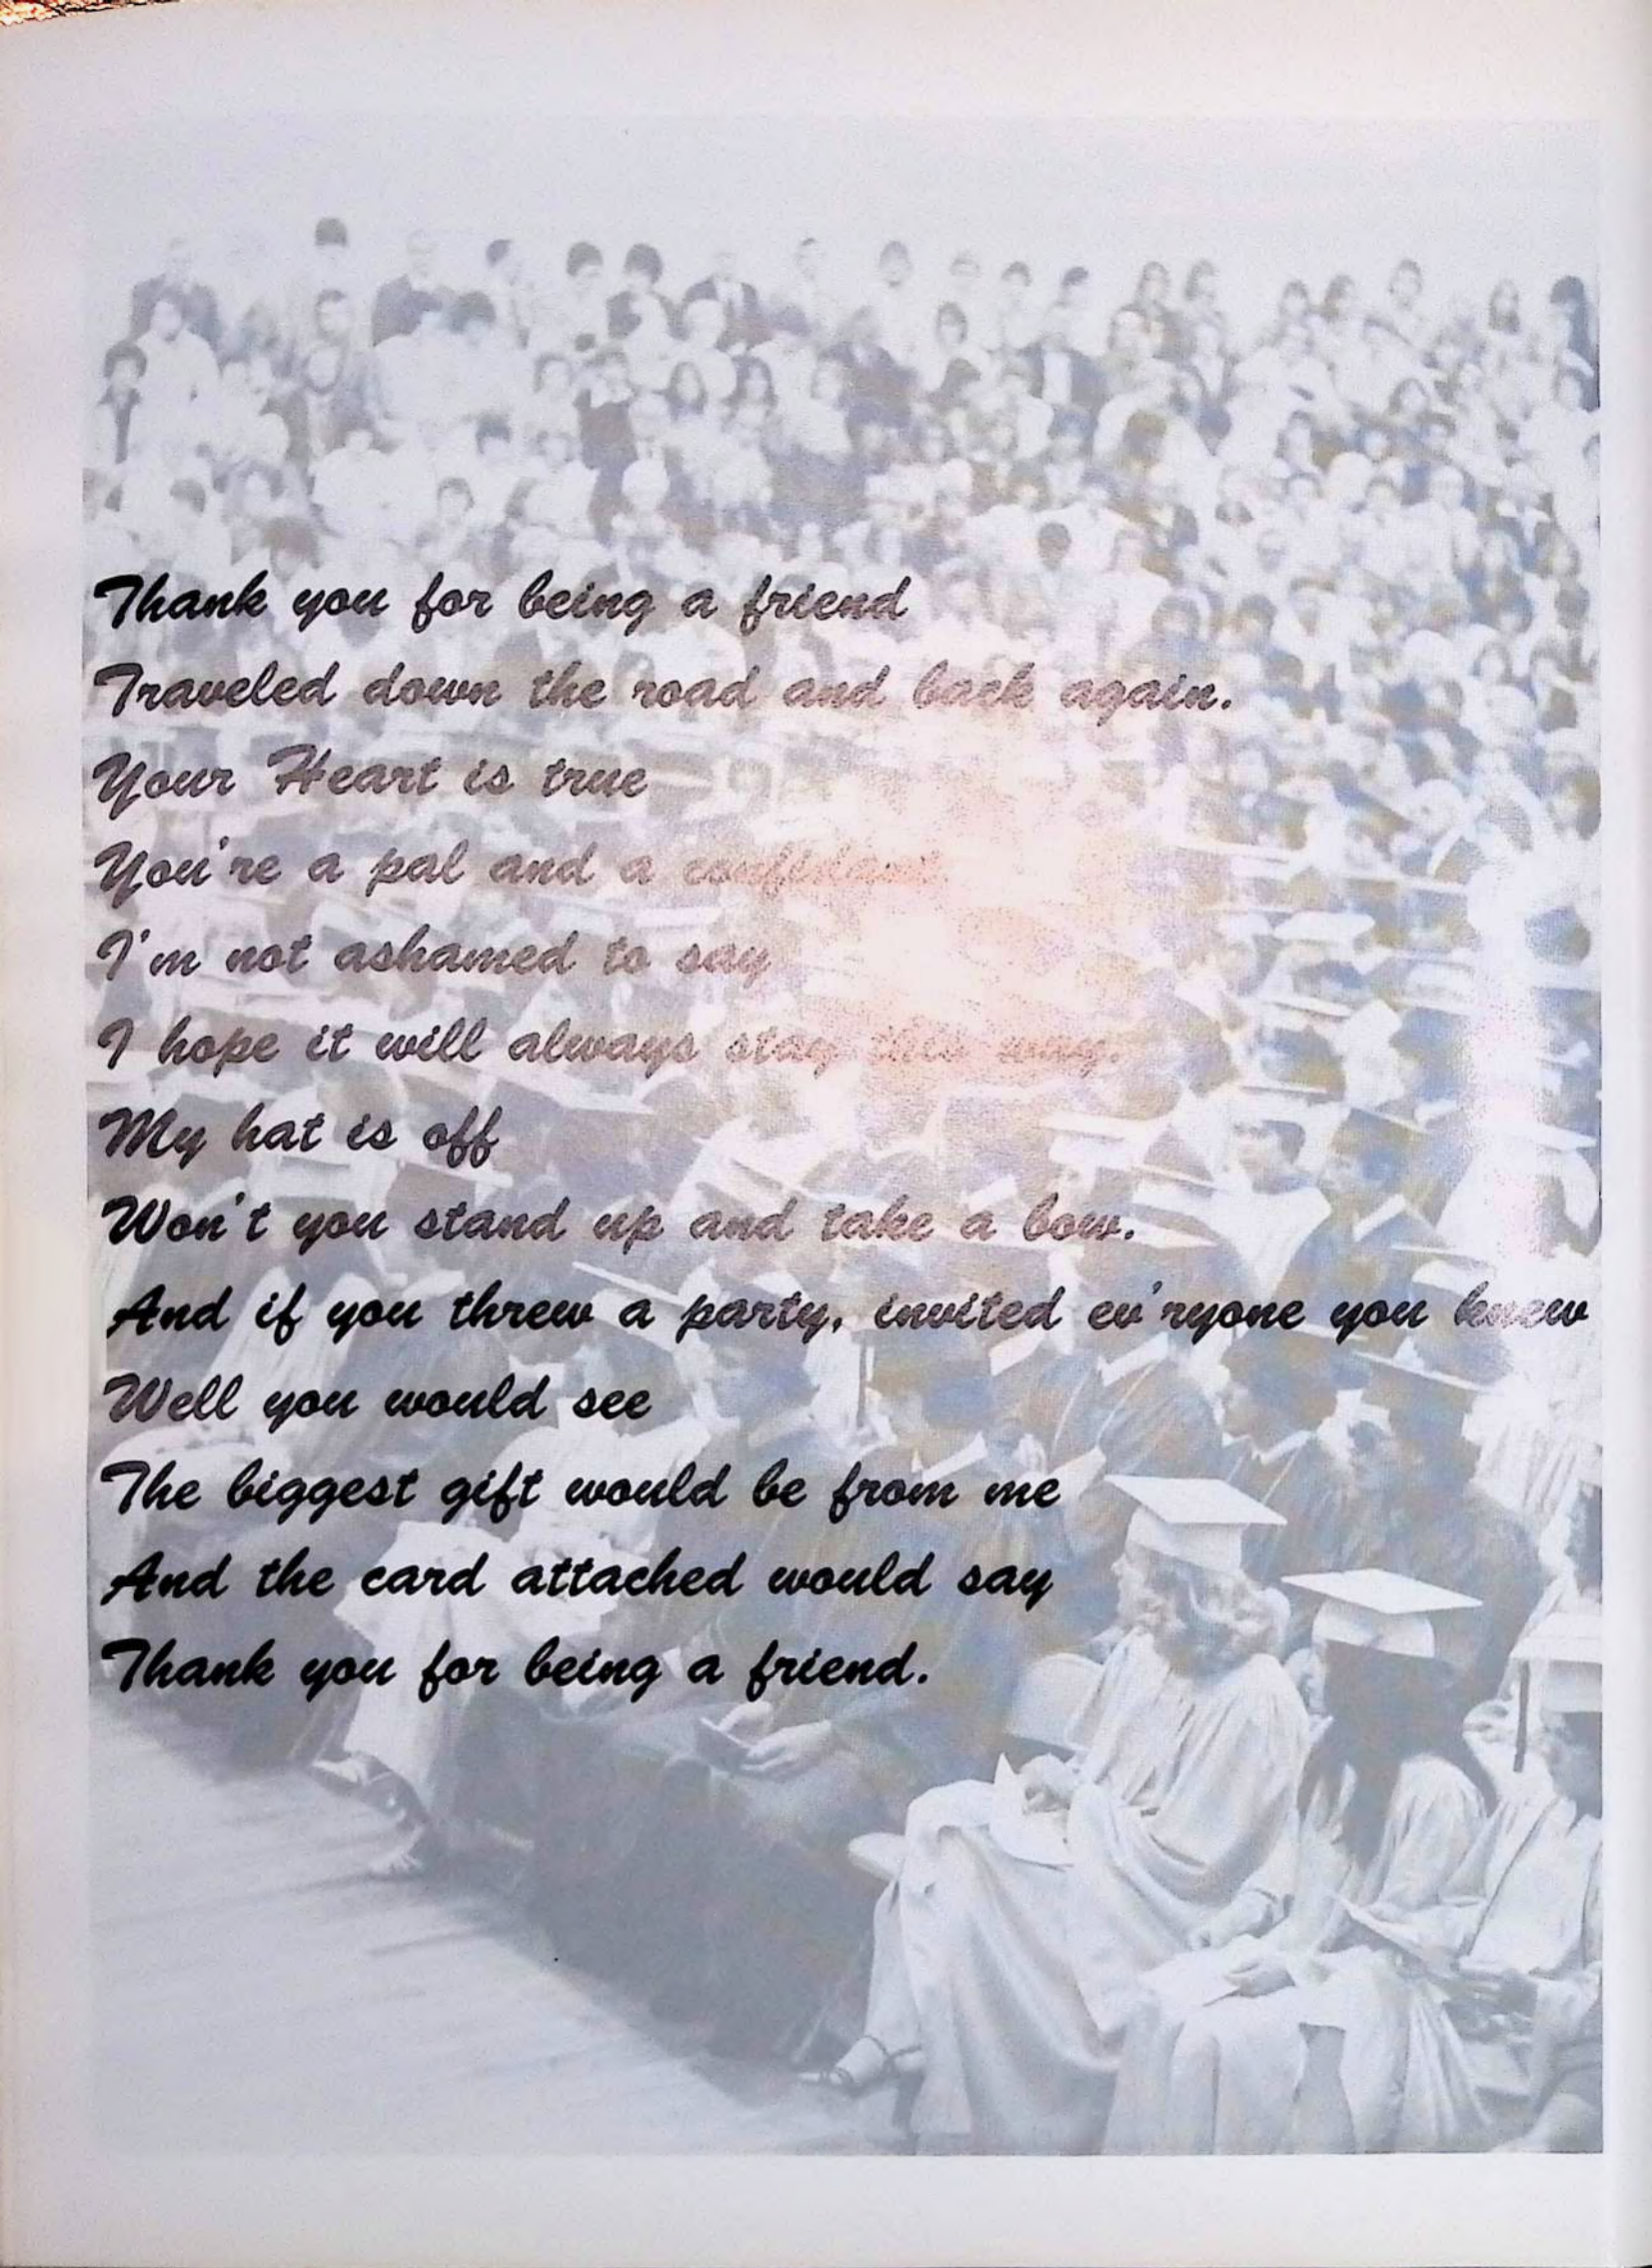

Business Graduate Peggy Claypool happily accepts congratulations from Mr. Campbell.

A large crowd of graduates in caps and gowns is seated in an auditorium, filling the background of the page. The graduates are wearing white gowns and black mortarboard caps. Some are looking towards the front, while others are looking down at papers or programs. The scene is a typical commencement ceremony.
