THE CROWNING

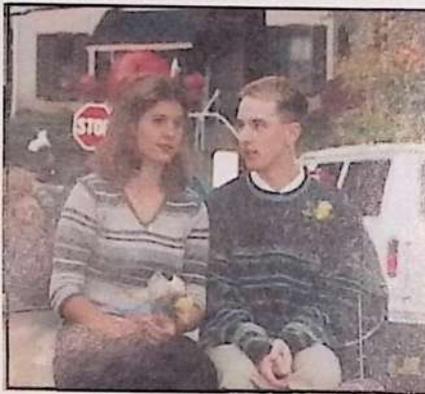

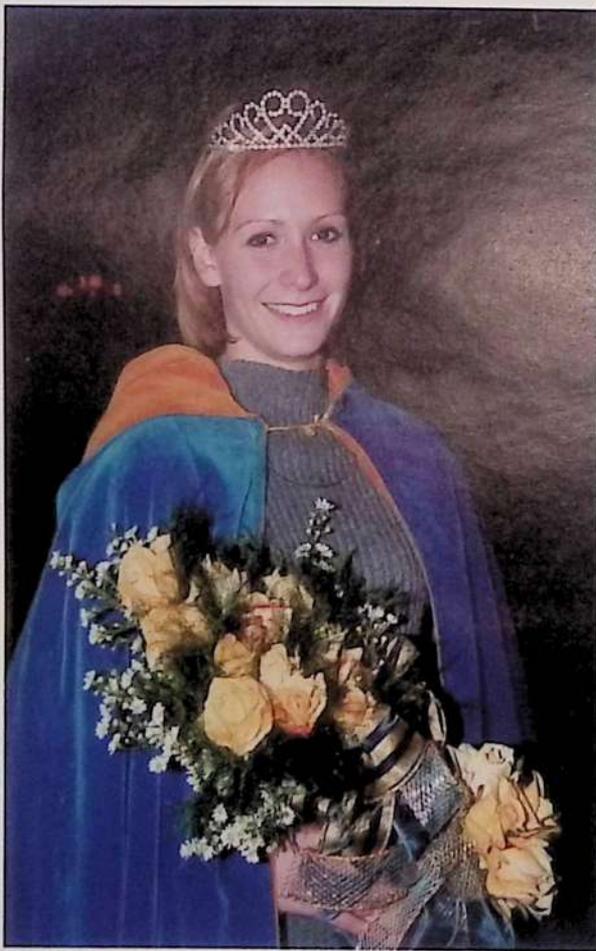

2000 - 2001 HOMECOMING

OF THE QUEEN

The Crowning Moment and the thrill of victory.

Thera and Josh are sitting on top of the world.

Enjoying the parade, Tanya and Jimmie are checking out the crowd. Come on guys give us a smile!

Chelsea Duff and Zach Pollino

Tanya Kazor and Jimmie Lucas

Ashley Mohney and Mark Lepkowski

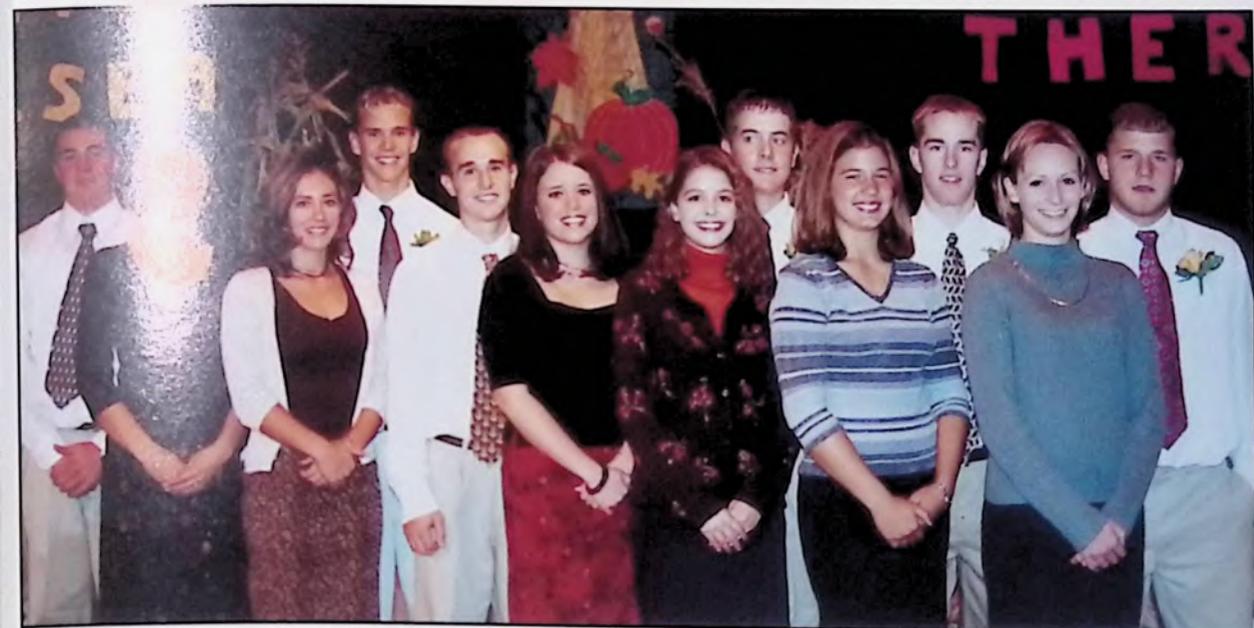

Overcome with excitement, Chelsea Duff, the 2000 Homecoming Queen, smiles and holds tight to her escort Zach Pollino. All eyes were on them as they stood in the middle of the field.

It was a crisp, fall day, typical for a Freeport Friday Night Football Game. Freeport was playing Summit Academy and the excitement seemed to help the Yellowjackets roll in a victory adding a 'W' to their record. The band played as the couples walked onto the field. The girls were glowing with anticipation under the bright stadium lights. For Chelsea Duff, the night couldn't be more perfect and magical as she was crowned on October 6th by Freeport's 1999 Homecoming Queen, Marci Stack. Chelsea Duff, escorted by Zach Pollino, is the daughter of Tom and Kathy Duff. Chelsea views it as, "A privilege to be crowned as the 2000-2001 Homecoming Queen."

VIVA

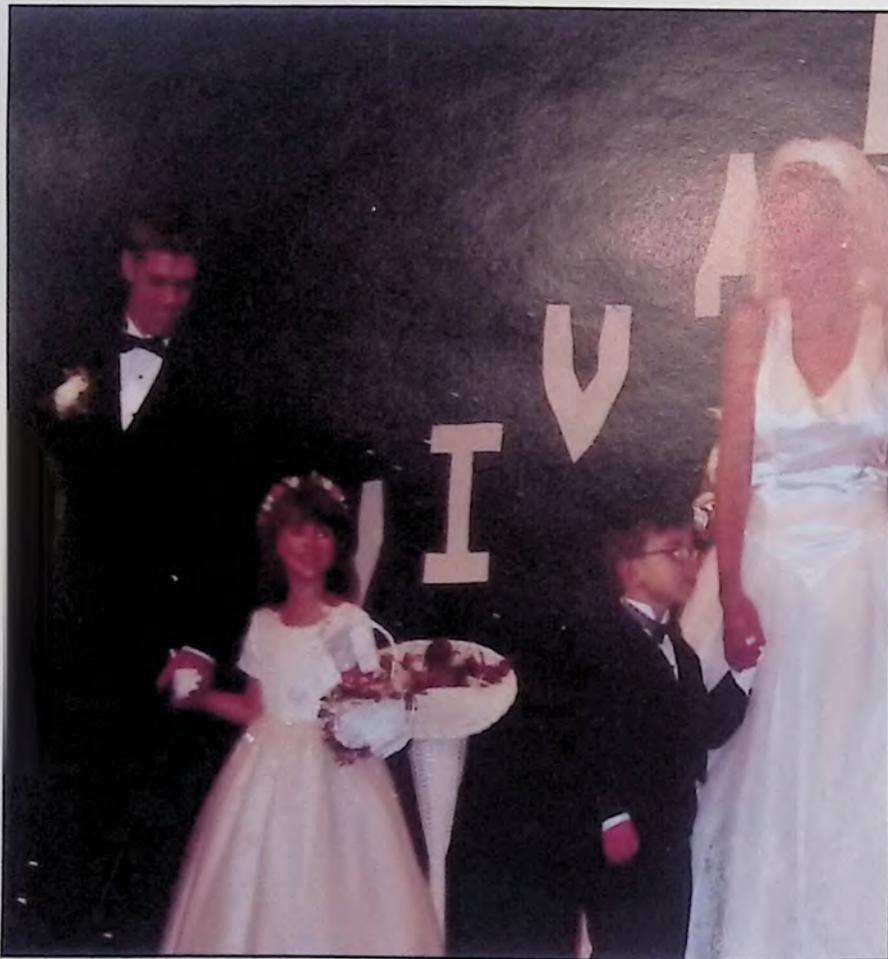

2000 - 2001 FASHION SHOW

LAS VEGAS

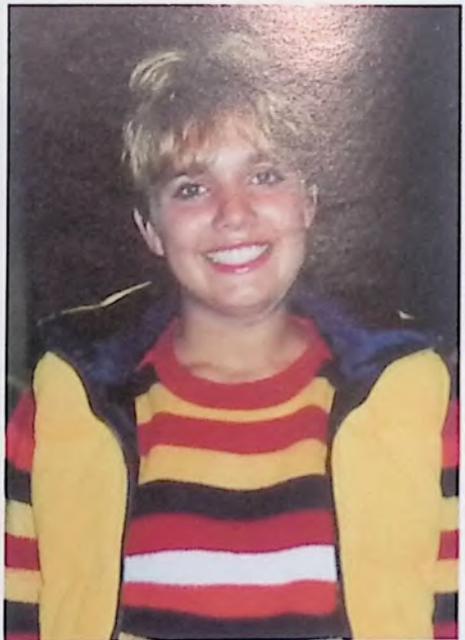

Styling Sophomores Dennis Paskorz and Mike Bender look a little shy about their cool, khaki, casual look.

Very colorful freshman, Tiffany Mayman, strikes a pose.

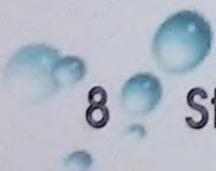

Seniors Katie, Jen, and Jess share a hug.

The audience went wild over this couple.

The 'Viva Las Vegas' Fashion Show was a huge success; raising more money for Children's Hospital than any other year. KDKA's Jon Burnett volunteered his time to host this energized show with Margaret Bellotti, this year's chairperson. True to Vegas, some of Freeport's finest girls danced for the audience. These seven beautiful showgirls opened the show leading some great fashions and a few surprises. We can't forget the gamblers who shared their own space on the stage along with some oversized dice. Elvis even made an appearance and closed the show with a powerful performance. One lucky couple from Pittsburgh won a trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, from the raffle that was held.

Jon Kurtz grooves on the catwalk.

Freeport held its annual student blood drive on Thursday, March 1, 2001. It was sponsored by the Student Council and the Social Studies Department. Volunteers came to the school at 7:15 the morning of the blood drive to help the Red Cross set the gym up for the donation. All day students gave their blood in hopes of helping others. The drive went smoothly with no major cases of fainting or pizza-stealing. The goal of getting 90 good units of blood was beat by a total of 96 usable units of blood. Ryan Fleischer was the senior chairperson in charge of the event. Josh Stover was the junior assisting Ryan along with our one and only, Mr. Wyant as the faculty advisor.

SAVING LIVES

"Put a smile on your face and make the world a better place," agree Mark Maskas and Beth Tegethoff.

Mr. Wyant appears to be helping out, but we think he is just looking for pizza.

Against all odds, Macho Men, Jake Atkinson, and Bobby Woods made through the donation without fainting.

Awaiting the inevitable, Mr. Beale quietly sits on the table ready for his blood to be drawn.

THE LEGEND OF

2000 - 2001 PLAY / DINNER THEATER

ROBIN HOOD

Friar Tuck played by Brian Cherry must have had some lemons before he went on stage!

My what long limbs you have Eric!

I have to read all of this?

King Richard and his admirers

...SORT OF

The story of Robin Hood is, of course, well known by millions of people. However, this version is told with broad humor and slapstick comedy routines that keep the audience laughing almost from beginning 'til end. The Senior High version, with its "theater in the round" effect was well received by every member of the audience as they ate a medieval-style meal while they watched Robin and Little John fight with their walking sticks, Robin and Witch Waye thrown in jail (underneath a table), Robin and the Sheriff, and Robin and King John do battle with swords along with the waiters and waitresses. In addition, Robin and Friar Tuck were always getting themselves in trouble. Robin and Maid Marion fell in love, got married and, hopefully lived happily ever after.

Look into my eyes

"Three's Company Too" agrees Ally Wood, Amber Cramer, and Amanda Thiry.

With lights twinkling and dresses shimmering, students floated into a dreamy snowball. This year's attendance of the "Snowangel's Ball" flew through the roof compared to previous years. Could this be because of the celestial decorating by the snowball committee headed by Bethanie Vorp and Lanna Horn? Everyone entered the dance walking beneath angel's wings. It was a time for old and new friends to share a starlit memory. Students enjoyed dancing to the D.J.'s choices especially moving to the Electric Slide and heel stomping to the Boot, Skoot, and Boogie. The night was heaven for some when the 2000-2001 Snowball Court was announced.

Feelin' the itch again, Junior Josh Stover breaks it down on the dance floor.

Save the last dance for me, says Julie McCorkle.

The Freeport Marching Band traveled in March to Toronto to march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. The weekend stay was packed with sights and amusements thanks to Thomas Tours. Everyone danced, including Mr. Pavlik who was on the tables at Hard Rock Café. The Highlight for many came next when we got to see "The Lion King" production. It was amazing to see the talent young singers possessed. The show came alive with the "animals" entering through the aisles to the stage. The CN Tower gave some a fright with the glass floor. It was a shopper's delight when we stopped at the Eaton Center, an underground mall with over 250 stores. The Science Center was an adventure showing the newest technology and some students tried wheelchair racing or tested the speed they could throw a ball. The night was still young when we feasted at Medieval Times and the girls saw their "Knights in Shining Armor." Afterwards there was a dance. The next day was still stars with breakfast at Planet Hollywood. Then off to the parade. The band sounded and looked sharp and together through the whole parade that was over 2 miles. Niagra Falls was the last stop on the way home from the successful trip.

The Angels show love to the minister.

Right: Stacey Blythe as Reno, with two of her Angels, is the lady of the voyage.

Below: Bon Voyage! The journey begins for the passengers.

On April 5, 6, and 7 the stage of Freeport came to life in what was, yet another wonderful musical performance. With the help of his wonderful stage crew, Mr. Paviik turned the stage into the S.S. American. The audience got to bid the cast members Bon Voyage, as well as watch their crazy antics at sea. With a twisted love story that could make anyone's head spin, and two crazy stowaways on board the show was a never ending laugh trip. It was easy to see why the musical was titled Anything Goes. It's truly amazing to see the stage come to life after months of hard work and dedication; and although we had our hard times, Pav never doubted us a bit. So on behalf of myself and the rest of the seniors leaving, we love and thank you for all you have done for us.

WISHING YOU

2000 - 2001 RETIREES

A FAREWELL

Mr. Doverspike was born in Kittanning where he played baseball in high school and met his wife. He went on to Salem College in West Virginia and taught in West Virginia before he came to Freeport. He taught English, Physical Education, and Health for 37 years before his retirement. He was head boys' basketball and baseball coach during those years, and could often be seen selling tickets at games. He is an avid hunter and fisherman and has four children.

*Goodluck
Mr. Doverspike*

*Goodbye
Mrs. Szuch*

Mrs. Szuch has spent many years in the halls of Freeport. She's seen children come and go, and made close friendships with many of them. When news of her retirement got back to the students in her class, many were disappointed. We were all sad to see her go. Mrs. Szuch gave her all to everyone she met. She was a teacher, but she was so much more than that. She was a mentor, an adult, a prankster, and above all else a friend to many. If you were having trouble figuring out what to do, or if you needed advice on anything she was always there to help. Everyone in the PMEA Region that worked with her was sad to see her go, as are we. We will miss her dearly. I know that personally she was one of the best teachers I've ever had, and I know that many others feel the same as I do.

A NIGHT

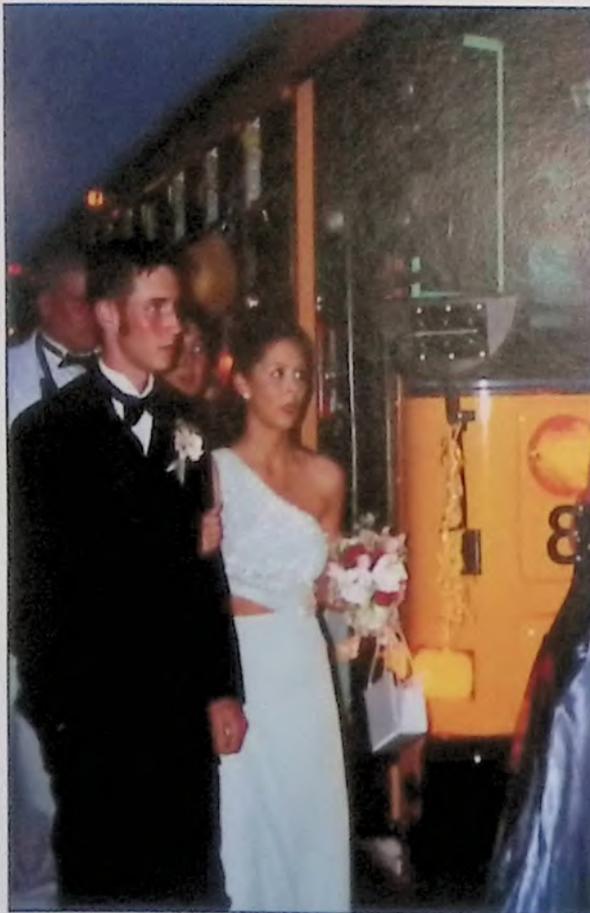

2000 - 2001 PROM

IN PARADISE

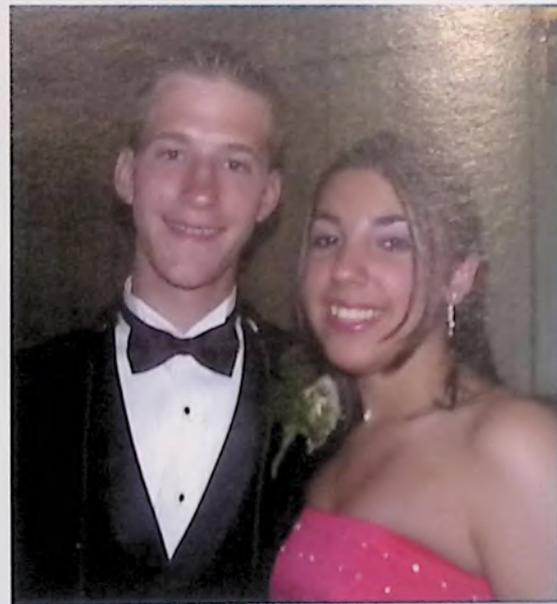

Arriving at the party just in time, Krystle Macurdy and Zack Cataldi prepare for a night of fun and laughter.

By bringing sophomore Pernell Shaw to the prom, Jen Tarosky's night was all the better.

Sharing the same expression, Greg Lewitz and Adam Roman enjoy the night.

This couple, Cliff Greenfield and Stacy Lythe, don't appear to be coming a shy and offer their pearly whites our way.

Awaiting the time of their lives.

Enjoying the evening.

Mr. Macho Man???

Sparkling with dazzle, Jackie Allenberg enjoys her last prom at Freeport.

A line of beauty stands in sequence as they wander around at their last high school dance.

A Night in Paradise for many now means tasty food, endless dancing, and lifelong memories. On May 4th, 2001, the Juniors and Seniors met for an unforgettable evening at Laube Hall. Couples entered the prom on a flowered pathway lined with luminaries. Inside a tropical atmosphere greeted them. Along the dance floor, was a scenic view of a waterfall leading into a dark pool of water at dusk. The Afterprom featured 'tropical drinks' adorned with fruit slices. The night was so lovely; it was paradise for all.

POMP AND

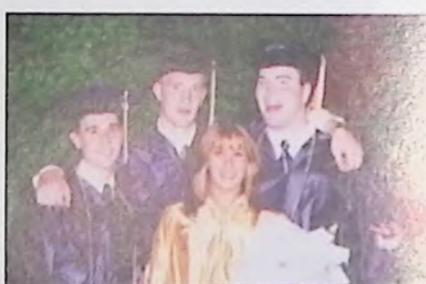

2000 - 2001 GRADUATION

CIRCUMSTANCE

Twin sisters, Mary and Carrie Vido enjoy one last school event.

Gracie and Erica grin before saying goodbye.

Showing off his diploma, Jake Atkinson takes some out with some of his senior friends.

Getting ready to graduate, Brian Dela Rosa and Genaro Dilembo take their place in line.

Ashley Micholas gets some last minute help.

Dominick Ravotti and John Reesmen: Men in Blue.

Jessica Hause shares one last joke with Josh Rummel.

Looking pleased that they have just graduated, Stephanie Dudeck and Jackie Allenberg pose for the camera.

Kelley McDermott and Gena Mennow are guided in gold.

An overcast, rainy Friday didn't dampen the enthusiasm and dreams of 154 seniors who are ready to embark on a new world outside the walls of their comfort zone of high school and home. Ceremonies were held at Laube Hall with more than 1,000 graduates, family, friends and faculty attending. Collectively the students received $927,000 in scholarships at colleges and universities, and eighty-five percent of the class plans to go on to post-secondary education. Class speakers chosen from the National Honor Society were Anne Laux whose speech was entitled "Remembering the Past, Shaping the Future" and Brian Cherry who reflected on the past in delivering his speech, "Good Bye, Farewell, Amen."

Sharing one last hug, Thera and Brian.

Graham and Jon are ready go.

Two men and a lady.

Share the memories of the years

Each party, dance, game, and laugh, we're

Not ready yet for goodbye tears.

It's the year of ruling the school

Only until the prom and graduation in June. Then

Reminisce of your Freeport Pride

Seeing what the future holds and going for the ride.

ONE LAST

2000 - 2001 SENIOR BANQUET

As the class of 2001 met for the last time at the senior banquet, May 18th, memories were made that would last a lifetime. The event was held at the Natrona Heights V.F.W., where a dinner and a D.J. were provided for the class to enjoy. Cameras flashed as friends took some of their last pictures together. Emotions ran high as conversations escalated about the past years spent here at the high school. Students remembered all of the times they shared together, good and bad. The future was also a topic of many of the conversations at the banquet. Seniors talked about the future and what they would be doing for their post high school plans. Eventually, it was time to hand out the senior personalities. This event filled the room with a lot of laughter as well as smiling faces and photos. Awards were also issued for baby pictures that were submitted by the senior students. Door prizes included gift certificates to Lazarus and National Record Mart. The night ended in dancing as the D.J. pumped up the music so that the class could "get their groove on" for the last time as a group. The night overall was a blast, but all good things must eventually come to an end. Soon, it was time to say goodbye and the senior class of 2001 departed on their separate ways just as they did so on their graduation day.

You can always tell when its football season because everyone is looking forward to the first game. Football season is one of the best times of the year because so much comes along with it; such as homecoming and the parties after the games. Our sophomore year was one that will be most memorable. Four of us were chosen to help the team with the athletic training. We helped tape up the guys or helped the coaches out with whatever needed done. It was a lot of fun to see everyone before the game and how pumped up everyone got. Some of the best memories were the bus rides. The guys would be sleeping away the long ride before a game and two of them slept with their mouth pieces in and drooled on one another, or on the way home we would have to listen to them sing. It was truly an experience to be on the field and down in the locker room because we got to know the guys better. Although I hope I don't have to smell some of those odors again, it was a lot of fun; but I have to say that I think the best part of last season was getting to talk to Coach Snake.

It's fall 2000 and it's once again time to kick off another soccer season. As playoff contenders last year and holding a ranking in the WPIAL, and the right to defend their section championship, the Freeport Boys' Soccer Team had so much to prove. Graduating eleven seniors from the previous year, there were some skeptics who didn't believe the team could possibly equal last year's season. Could the guys prove them wrong? In the beginning, one problem that was faced was a shortage of players; but, before the season started, members of the team along with the assistance of Mr. McGrady helped to recruit some new faces that could help the team reach its goals. The boys didn't start the season exactly how they had wished. With a loss to Shady Side Academy and a tie to Burrell, the boys were going to have to pick up the slack; and, they did! The boys went on a winning streak that couldn't be stopped. The second time around they defeated Shady Side Academy and Burrell who had given them some trouble earlier in the season. They ended the season in second place and made it back to the playoffs again. For all the people who didn't believe, they now have no reason to doubt the talent of the Freeport Boys' Soccer Program.

Returning for her second year of coaching, Coach Medwig and Coach Early were faced with a group of twenty-five talented athletes. The girls started off the season with a promising outlook. Double sessions proved to be hard and challenging but rewarding. The underclassmen stepped up to be a big help and to take over the show, while the seniors made their presence known on and off the field. The soccer team was a group of closely bonded girls that could be found together on and off the field. With a coach that was willing to help out and teammates that were willing to do anything for you, this year's team was a remarkable one. The team finished their season with a record of 5-9-1 and a hopeful outlook for next year.

As every team's goal is to make the WPIAL Playoffs, the Lady Jacket Volleyball team had this in mind. Kittanning, Ford City, Apollo Ridge, and Leechburg were the familiar teams that Freeport would have to face. However, Valley and Knoch, who appeared on the new 2001 schedule, would also stand in their way. Losing four seniors also presented a challenge for the Jackets. The girls knew that in order to have a successful season, they would have to "step it up." With an overall record of 7-6, the Jackets would advance to the WPIAL Playoffs, making it Coach Grasha's first appearance in post-season competition. Unfortunately their season came to a close as Burrell defeated the Jackets and advanced to the next round.

As Kim Petschke learned, sometimes you just have to grin and bear it.

Sending the ball flying, Michelle Micklow awaits her next turn in action.

During a player change, Shawna Betts gives Kristen Bombalski a good luck "high five."

Head Coach Garrie Davies returned after a one-year hiatus, and was extremely excited about the season. "I'm real happy to be back," Davies said. "It's nice to be in this section and to be around people I know." Freeport played in Class AAA last season and became part of the Class AA this season. The Yellow Jackets had just three lettermen back from last year's season, juniors Adam Bauman, Mike Acre, and Jeremiah Huth. Coach Davies commented on the juniors, "They all love basketball and show great enthusiasm. They make it exciting for me." During the season, Davies game plan was to play tight man-to-man and pressure defenses, so that Freeport could rotate 10 or 11 players a game. "It's a positive thing to involve everybody," Davies said. What the Yellow Jackets lacked in size and experience, Davies made sure they made up for in effort. "We wanted to make sure we were working hard and playing our best at all times. We wanted to be tough on the court. All the area teams are pretty similar. It was an exciting year for everybody."

Giving words of wisdom, expertise, and advice, Mr. Davies gets his team wound up.

With six returning letter winners and a strong group of underclassmen, this year's basketball season had a bright outlook. Summer camp at UPJ showed how much potential the team would have in the upcoming season. The seniors showed their leadership abilities while the underclassmen showed their ability to play. The team was faced with some hardships at camp, like how to get a squirrel out of a pop machine, and how to build a human pyramid with twenty girls. Even though the team was plagued with problems and many injuries, this season turned out to be the jackets best season in the past five years. The varsity team not only had a winning season but the junior varsity team was able to go 16-0 with Mr. Lorigan leading the team. This year's group of athletes was able to get what they needed done and to have some fun along the way.

Freeport ties it up, shutting them down from any chance of scoring.

To sum up the season in a few words, "preparation for next year." The season didn't go exactly how the players would have liked, but they certainly know what to do for next year. The 1st half of the season was going the way everyone had wanted, but after many injuries and suspensions, everything twisted in a downhill spiral for the guys. They ended up having a disappointing 5-17-1 record. Even though the season wasn't up to par, "it was fun and exciting." The team graduated five skilled seniors, but the team is bringing up five players from the freshmen squad. The team has much to prove next year. Can they do it? You will have to come see them play next year to find out!

After making it to the quarterfinals of the WPIAL playoffs and being co-section champs last season, the Lady Jackets had high expectations to meet in the 2001 season. However, they would have to overcome the loss of 6 seniors in order to achieve their goals. The start of the season was not looking too bright for the young team as the Jackets started out 0-4 in preseason play, but an extra-inning victory over Ford City in their first section game kicked-off Freeport's successful season. The softball team only lost two section games putting them in 2nd place in their section. They also were able to beat Burrell, their greatest rival, the second time around. The Lady Jackets defeated Southmoreland in the 1st round of the playoffs and ended their season with a loss to Riverside in the 2nd round.

The 2001 boys' track team carried on the long tradition for Freeport track. The team finished with only one section loss. They were runner-ups and qualified for the WPIAL team playoffs. At the individual qualifiers the boys team sent one relay team consisting of Colin Reilly, Mark Lepkowski, Adam Shilling, Josh Helgert, and Tyler Cochran. Colin Reilly also qualified in the 1600M. In the hurdles both school record holder Bobby Woods and Talan Conjack qualified. The boys' team brought home six medals including a gold for Bobby Woods in the 100M hurdles. Bobby qualified in both the 110M and 300M hurdles for States. After the two-day competition Bobby Woods emerged as the State Champion in the 110 hurdles.

Go Big Blue! This cheer could be heard echoing from the sidelines of the football field and basketball court. As always the FHS Cheerleaders loyally supported the football team through rain, mud, and snow. They also cheered the Yellow Jackets to the basketball playoffs this year, never skipping a beat in-between the two sports. In addition to games the girls also held their two annual mini-camps, and performed gravity-defying stunts and dances at the bonfire and Blue and Gold Madness. The girls' hard work, dedication, and time definitely paid off. From the beginning of summer to the middle of March, the girls practiced hard to learn new cheers, dances, stunts, and chants while taking aerobics in the summer. They endured hours of practice, double sessions, and camp and it only made them closer, stronger, and better. Although they worked hard, there was always time for a joke and a smile. The girls became close friends and will share many fond memories that will last a lifetime. They lived Freeport Pride and always will be the best Freeport has to offer. "Who, who are we FHS!"

In keeping with the winning tradition, the Freeport Golf Team took on a challenge this year. After the loss of three key players and several major injuries to the returning tri-captains, the team managed to fall three strokes short of recapturing the section title. The Yellow Jackets defeated Burrell in a thrilling sudden death playoff at Buffalo Golf Course. Josh Shirley defeated Jon Johasky on the first hole. In turn Burrell defeated Freeport at Hillcrest Country Club by three strokes. The only other section defeat came at Oakmont East by Riverview. Our record this year was 10 wins and 2 losses in the section, giving us an overall record of 14 wins and 5 losses. With this record the team achieved it's ninth trip in 11 years to the WPIAL team playoffs. Our 11 year total is 120 wins and 21 losses in section play and 162 wins and 31 losses overall. Some of the highlights this year include: Kelsey Harned and Grant Patterson's "holes in one"; the JV team is now school sponsored; and hiring Mr. Jim Fair as Asst. Golf Coach. Coaches Dave Panach and Jim Fair would like to thank the Boosters for all their support. They would also like to extend a special thank you to the Waldron family, owners of Buffalo Golf Course, and to the new owners of Riverforest Country Club for the use of their courses.

Cody,

When we first met you were an yearling, it was one of the most happiest of days.

AND WE SMILED

You grew so quickly, it seemed much the son you craved and walked then ran like the wind.

AND WE SMILED

Where has time gone? As you get ready to fly

A magnificent young man stands before my eyes. With love and pride, the tears start to run as I give to the world, my precious son.

AND WE WILL SMILE

Seth,

You have grown from a boy into a man. We are proud to call you our son. You have overcome so much and have reached out to help others through your national videos and other interviews. God bless you on your road to college and to your future.

We love you!
Mom & Dad

Lindsey,

Your beautiful smile, your spirit, your energy, your endless determination, your strength, your generosity, your simple kindness, your huge heart and of course "The Look" are just some of the things that make "Lindsey" and make us very proud to say you are our daughter. We have enjoyed watching you grow into the beautiful woman you have become. You have filled our house with fun and laughter, love and endless excitement. As you go out into the world remember your roots and know that we will always be here for you. We wish you success and happiness in whatever you do.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Corey, and Matt

On Hockey Life
Since you were a little did we ignore the chance to see you skate and ecstasy when you scored.
Then we'd arrange each time to see and hear the crash into the boards!
At home you'll always be our little boy, in life that may not show. A rough and tumble young man
now and not the boy we know. The things we've learned about hockey and life are joy and difficult, true. But, we never would have learned them without you being you!

Last year we started the new century with a Y2K space theme because we were looking to where new frontiers would be in the 21st century. This year we continued with the frontier theme looking at the depths of the sea as another frontier. We are taking this yearbook tour in the U.S.S. Freeportian to 2001 leagues under the sea.

A new challenge this year taken on by Nikki Allenberg and Dan Bain was the index. This is an awesome undertaking for a book published as an after-school activity, and you will find that students will be pictured on many pages other than the ones listed because not all pictures have captions which include the names.

A special thanks to the parents and students who contributed pictures for our yearbook, Valley News Dispatch, Dave, Debbie and Gordy from LifeTouch, parents and businesses who purchased ads, the administration, the teachers for their understanding when we interrupted class to take pictures, and the yearbook staff--especially, Jason, Leah, Nikki, Julia, Whitney, and Bethany.

The Election 2000

After five weeks of hand recounts, court appeals, concessions and retractions, Vice President Al Gore's final concession of the presidency to Texas Governor George W. Bush and his vice presidential running mate Dick Cheney brought an end to one of the longest and most eventful elections in American history.

What happened? The Election at a Glance:

November 7 (Election Day): Shortly before 8 p.m. EST, the major television networks estimate Al Gore and vice-presidential running mate Joe Lieberman the winners.

With a too-close-to-call election throughout much of the nation, Florida becomes the key state in deciding the winner, as the next president will need Florida's 25 electoral votes to win.

November 8: At 2:15 a.m., results from Florida begin to suggest George Bush carries the battleground state. Gore concedes the election to Bush, thinking Bush has at least a 50,000 vote lead. Forty-five minutes later, Gore gets word Bush's lead has shrunk to only a few thousand votes, and retracts his concession.

Due to the closeness of the election, the focus turns to questionable ballots and fair voting practices.

In St. Louis, Mo., a controversy arises over a lower court's ruling to keep the polls open past the 7 p.m. deadline.

In Palm Beach County, Fla., an unexpectedly large number of votes for Reform Party candidate Pat Buchanan lead to questions about the legitimacy of the punch-card-style "butterfly ballot."

November 9: Gore's team requests a hand recount of ballots in four Florida counties, Palm Beach, Miami-Dade, Broward and Volusia.

November 16: Bush's lawyers submit written arguments to the U.S. Federal Appeals Court to end recounts.

November 22-December 8: Hand recounts and legal battles continue, making the word "chad" (the small piece of paper punched out of the ballots) a household word.

December 9: The U.S. Supreme Court halts the manual recounts and sets a hearing for two days later.

December 13: In a public concession speech, Gore states he no longer wishes to prolong the election, and yields the presidency, making George W. Bush the nation's 43rd president, and the first chief executive since Benjamin Harrison in 1888 to claim the office with the majority of electoral votes but a minority of the popular vote nationwide.

Elan Gonzalez, a six-year-old Cuban boy found off the coast of Florida, survived yet another ordeal: the brutal custody battle between relatives in Miami and his father in Cuba. The long struggle culminated in a late-night raid on a Miami home where armed U.S. agents seized Elan by force, putting him in the custody of his father who returned with Elan to Cuba.

In a stunning surprise move, Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak announced his resignation. Barak's popularity had dropped during the ongoing conflict between Israelis and Palestinians. Barak stood for re-election, hoping for a vote of confidence from the Israeli People, but lost to Likud party leader Ariel Sharon.

Many thought peace between North Korea and South Korea would never happen, but the past year saw warming relations between the two countries, which are still technically at war. Images of North Korean leader Kim Jong Il entertaining South Korea's Kim Dae-jung at a June peace summit in Pyongyang were considered some of the most surprising news pictures of the year.

Elections in Yugoslavia turned angry when Prime Minister Slobodan Milosevic lost to the people's choice Vojislav Kostunica 35 percent to 55 percent. The election's close margin of error would have warranted a recount, but Milosevic refused to hold another election, declaring himself the winner. The outraged public rallied violently in the streets of Belgrade, and the riots combined with pressure from the U.N. and Russia finally forced Milosevic to concede the election to Kostunica.

Bitter cold and freezing water did not deter an estimated two and a half million people who bathed in India's Ganges River on the first day of a Hindu religious festival. The Maha Kumbh Mela, or Grand Pitcher Festival, takes place every 12 years and sees millions of devotees bathe in the Ganges to purify their sins.

As the price of crude oil reached a 10-year high of $34 per barrel, angry truckers and farmers throughout Europe blockaded oil depots and put a chokehold on much of the nation's fuel supply. The high petrol prices led to an unprecedented show of public dissent in European countries, particularly Britain.

The Beatles' 1966 record "Sgt. Pepper" has been named the greatest rock album ever in a poll conducted by the cable music channel VH1. The Beatles capped a list of the 100 best rock albums taken from a VH1 poll of 500 rock journalists and musicians, including Britney Spears, Jackson Browne, Elvis Costello, Roberta Flack and Art Garfunkel. The Fab Four are still topping the charts with "1," a collection of all the Beatles' number one hits.

"The West Wing" set a record for the most Emmys earned by a show in its first season. The NBC political drama won nine Emmys, including outstanding drama, at the 52nd Annual Prime Time Emmy Awards. The show surpassed the record previously held by "ER" and "Hill Street Blues." The NBC comedy "Will & Grace" also turned 11 of its nominations into awards, including outstanding comedy.

Controversial rapper Eminem, a.k.a. Marshall Mathers, got top honors at the ninth annual MTV Video Music Awards, winning the coveted Video of the Year award along with best male video for his signature song "The Real Slim Shady." Eminem's "The Marshall Mathers LP" sold 1.76 million copies during its first week.

Versions of ABC's hit smash "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire" hit the airwaves in 31 countries, with more on the way. In India, a Hindi-language version became the country's most popular program ever.

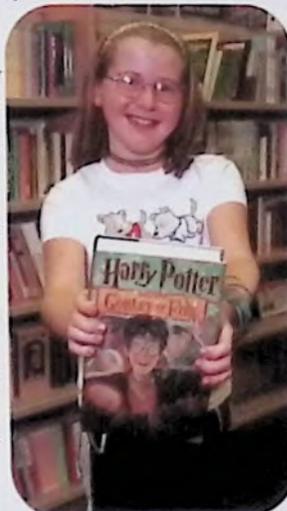

After a high-profile bidding war with other filmmakers, Universal Studios finally own the prized rights to Dr. Seuss's popular children's story

"How the Grinch Stole Christmas," when director Ron Howard impressed Seuss's widow with his take on the tale. Comedy icon Jim Carrey stole the show as the nasty green villain. A blockbuster smash, the movie was the highest grossing film of the year.

Harry Potter mania infected readers around the world. Although Book One of the series, "Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone," was first published in 1997, Y2K saw a mad surge in popularity for the boy wizard. The first four of the seven-book series, released by the end of 2000, sold 60 million copies in 200 countries. The voluminous 734-page "Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire" (book four) packed book houses with a record first printing of 3.8 million copies.

Surgeons at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center performed the first coronary bypass in the United States on a conscious patient. An epidural block numbed the patient's chest so he could speak to doctors during the beating-heart procedure. The 51-year-old man who received the single bypass recovered successfully.

It was a bittersweet victory for scientists when they successfully cloned a dead Asian gaur, an extinct species, and brought it into the world from the belly of a farm cow. The baby bull, called Noah, was born at Trans-Ova Genetics in Sioux City, Iowa, but died shortly after birth. Although Noah died, the project gives hope for ways to save endangered species and resurrect those already extinct.

The first five cloned piglets were presented to the world in April. The pigs were cloned from fetal-pig skin cells and scientists believe that due to the similarities between porcine (pig) and human organs, the techniques used to clone this litter may eventually create a supply of genetically modified pig livers and other organs that would be acceptable to the human immune system.

Researchers from Carnegie Mellon unveiled Nomad, the first robotic planetary rover with onboard intelligence. Previous planetary explorers, such as the Mars Pathfinder, needed human controllers to tell them what to do, but Nomad performs tasks such as snapping pictures, collecting samples and sending data back to earth by itself. Using a laser range finder and spectrometer, the robot analyzes every single rock in its path. Scientists hope to employ future generations of the rover to explore other planets.

After years of dreaming, planning and arguing over who should get the credit, the International Human Genome Project and Celera Genomics put their differences aside and officially announced they have (both) deciphered the 3.1 billion biochemical "letters" of human DNA. The amazing breakthrough will allow scientists vast insight into human health and disease at the molecular level, knowledge that will lead to a revolution in diagnosing and treating everything from Alzheimer's to cancer. The discovery is seen as one of history's great scientific milestones, the biological equivalent of landing on the moon.

Spectators beheld a dazzling opening ceremony, including the lighting of the torch by Australian runner (and native Aborigine) Cathy Freeman, who was later overcome with emotion when she won the gold for the women's 400-meter race.

Although the games received the lowest television ratings since 1968, many athletes gave inspirational performances.

United States sprinter Marion Jones fell short of her goal to win five gold medals, but still got the gold in the 100 and 200 meter sprints, and the 4x400 meter relay, as well as the bronze in the long jump and 4x100 meter relay, winning the medals in spite of the distraction of husband and shot put world champion

C.J. Hunter's positive drug test.

Defensive player of the year and game MVP Ray Lewis led a defense that intercepted four passes from the Giants and held New York to 152 total yards. The second and third touchdowns on three plays late in the third quarter were back-to-back kickoff returns by New York wide receiver Ron Dixon and Baltimore wide receiver Jermaine Lewis, creating a Super Bowl first.

The Kansas City Wizards downed the Chicago Fire, 1-0, for the MLS Cup at RFK Stadium in Washington, D.C. The win was a surprise comeback for the Kansas City team who finished last in 1999, and had not been to the MLS post-season since 1997. With 10 saves in the Chicago game and a record 16 shutouts in 2000, Wizards goalie Tony Meola had one of the best seasons of any player in MLS history, earning MVP honors from MLS and Honda, as well as Aquafina Goalkeeper and Ace Comeback Player of the Year awards.
