HOMECOMINA

"Cause it's you and me and all of the people with nothing to do, nothing to lose" are the lyrics of "You and Me," by Lifehouse, that filled the auditorium as the Homecomina candidates walked onto the stage. The lyrics described exactly how the girls were feeling. They felt as though they were the only ones in a room full of their peers. The stage was decorated with its familiar fall decorations. The girls' names were proudly displayed upon the back curtain.

The Homecoming candidates were Marlee Fritz, escorted by Brendon Buchanan; Lystina Kabay, escorted by Jeremy Gugino; Melanie Lutz, escorted by Tommy Ferrante; Lauren Morrison, escorted by Greg Bergstrom; Tatum Risch, escorted by Russ Greenfield; and Channing Sofko, escorted by Kyle Friend.

Doug Kersten and Katelyn Macurdy were chosen as the announcers for the Homecomina festivities. As the candidates stood on the field awaiting the announcement of Queen, the crowd remained silent. Katelyn announced the 2005-2006 Homecoming Queen as Marlee Fritz.

VISIONS OF SUGAR

Fall has always been the season when the annual Children's Hospital fashion show takes place but this year the show was on December 11 when we had already seen the first snow and "Visions of Sugar Plums" made for an ideal theme. An enormous sugar plum house adorned the stage and was centered among plenty of wrapped Christmas gifts. The tables at the luncheon prior to the fashion show were lined with poinsettias and center pieces filled with festive confetti, candy canes, and peppermints. Christmas music played as underclassmen modeled casual, everyday dothing. The seniors, however, stole the stage. The airls were dressed in formal dresses with their hair and makeup beautifully done and the boys looked stunning in their tuxedo. The star of the show was quest model. Makenzie Petras, a third arader from Buffalo Elementary who served as living proof of all of the benefits that Children's Hospital provides for Pittsburgh.

This year's spectacular play production was "It's a Wonderful Life", based on the well known film by Frank Capra. Sophomore Kevin Shaffer played George Bailey, a troubled young man who finds himself stuck in a small town known as Bedford Falls. George is driven further and further away from his goals by the problems of his friends and family. To worsen his situation, the villainous Mr. Potter (played by Ryan Kirchner) almost drives George to suicide by stealing the Bailey company funds in an accident.

Just as the critical moment is about to happen, George's guardian angel Clarence (played by Alex Love) comes to George's aide. Clarence helps George recall his life and tries to convince him that he "really had a wonderful life."

With the help of Director Ms. Smith and the stage crew, the cast created a production that will be remembered for ages. -Joe Uhina

The fire was glowing, the lights were sparkling, and the music was pumping. That was the scene for this year's Snowball, "London City Nights."

The night was enjoyed by all. The professional pictures were taken in front of the warm fireplace. There was dancing all around. Later that night, the Snowball Court was announced. The freshman winners were Dominique Hess and Mike Trusik. The sophomore winners were Christine Marty and Zach McDermott. The junior winners were Melanie Cherry and Nate Kotecki, And when it came time to announce the senior king and queen, it was announced that there had been a tie. There was a tie for queen, leaving King Tom Huet to dance with two girls, Melanie Lutz and Melissa Porter.

The dance seemed like something out of a fairytale. It was a magical night filled with smiles, laughter, pictures, dancing, and memories never to be forgotten.

Some Friends Are Forever

Sometimes in your life you find a special friend Someone who changes your life by being a part of it Someone who makes you laugh until you can't stop Someone who makes you believe that there is really good in the world Someone who convinces you that there is an unlocked door just waiting for you to open it And if you find such a friend you feel happy and complete because you have a friend forever And forever has no end.

At a football game in October, sophomore, Shane Bargerstock was injured in a helmet-to-helmet collision that splintered bones in his neck, leaving his hands and legs paralyzed. Concerned about Shane, students at Freeport brainstormed for fundraisers to assist with his recovery. Over $13,000 was raised through local donations. raffles, and a spagnetti dinner that was attended by over 700 members of the community. The Bargerstock family was also given $500 by Trib-Total Media for the annual "Make a Difference Day" contest.

After the injury and many difficult hours in rehab, Shane was able to return to Freeport High School in early February. Shane's mother stated, "He has got a good attitude, and I think that is what is getting him through all of this." Shane has made remarkable improvements and has become an incredible inspiration to all the community.

On April 6, 7, and 8, the Freeport High School auditorium was turned into a bustling office building in the 1950s. The musical "How to Succeed In Business Without Really Trying" was under the direction of Mr. Koharchik, "How to Succeed..." is about a window washer named J. Pierpont Finch. He is reading a book called "How to Succeed..." that helps him go from a window washer to Chairman of the Board. J. Pierpont, played by Kevin Shaffer, learns how to deal with the boss' nephew, falls in love, and attends office parties. At 7:30, on opening night, the lights came on and from then until curtain call the members of the cast were employees at the World World Wickets Company.

Blood Drive

As the smell of pizza and cookies filled the halls it only meant one thing to the students of Freeport High School: it was time for the annual blood drive. Doug Kersten and Melissa Porter chaired the event and made preparations for the day. Students and faculty generously spent parts of their day giving blood to the sick and wounded this March. The students enjoyed the day not only because of the treats after donating and missing class, but because they knew they were making an effort to save the lives of other people. There were only a few dilemmas, such as being too scared and nervous or even the few that got too dizzy and passed out. In the end, the blood drive was very successful and will continue to be a valuable Freeport tradition. -Christina Kersul

Students could almost hear the ocean waves and feel sand between their toes as they walked on the stage for promenade. This year's prom was most certainly a "Breakway" from the ordinary. The stage strikingly resembled a night in the tropics: with bright colors, palm trees, and a waterfall, When students arrived at the Syria Mosque the ballroom was illuminated by the flashes from cameras. Dinner was served, and dancing soon began. Shortly thereafter, the students were encouraged to stop dancing so the 2006 Prom Court, elected by the junior and senior classes, could be announced. The Court consisted of juniors Alyssa Conjack, Mat Caripolti, Megan Doerfler, and Beau Zack; and seniors Lystina Kabay, Greg Bergstrom, Tatum Risch, and Mike Zeilder. The students with the most votes. 2006 Prom King and Queen, were Tom Huet and Melanie Lutz. Dancing lasted for the rest of the evening and students also had the opportunity to indulge in a chocolate fountain and have caricature pictures drawn. Following tradition, the evening ended with the senior circle. As the music died down and the students began to "Breakaway" from the circle you could see that a great time was had by all. -Tatum Risch

On June 2, the Class of 2006 gathered under the same roof together perhaps for the last time ever. The night started off with Doug Kersten and Katelyn Macurdy's speech, "Life in Rewind," which took a look at life starting in retirement and ending in birth. Then, the high school chorus, comprised of several senior students, sang "For Good," which reflected how the graduating class has had an impact on each individual's life, Mr. Schleiden talked of the accomplishments of the senior class and their future endeavors. The night culminated in every high school student's dream, having their diploma handed to them. This was not only a big deal for the class, but for one student in particular, Kristen Vidra, a student that returned to Freeport to finish her high school career after being severely injured in a car accident in the winter of 2002, walked across the floor to receive her diploma. Being an inspiration to all who attended, Kristen also received a standing ovation for all of her strength and hard work.

The evening ended as the Class of 2006 recessed to lawn area and prepared for endless amounts of photos with their families and friends. The night was both fun and emotional for all. Graduating is an experience filled with many goodbyes and many new beginnings.

Freeport may be a small town, but there is nothing small about its fans. Near or far, Freeport fans attend every game, meet, or match that is held. They have continued the tradition of holding a cookout before the basketball games. Also, the tradition of pie smashing at the pep rallies and the 3-legged basketball game has been kept alive. The new tradition of the "Jacket Rumble" has livened up the stands and "Gimme a'J" still echoes through the gym.

The fans' support went from local to national when the Steelers became the AFC Champions and advanced to Super Bowl

Every Friday was a "Black and Gold Day."

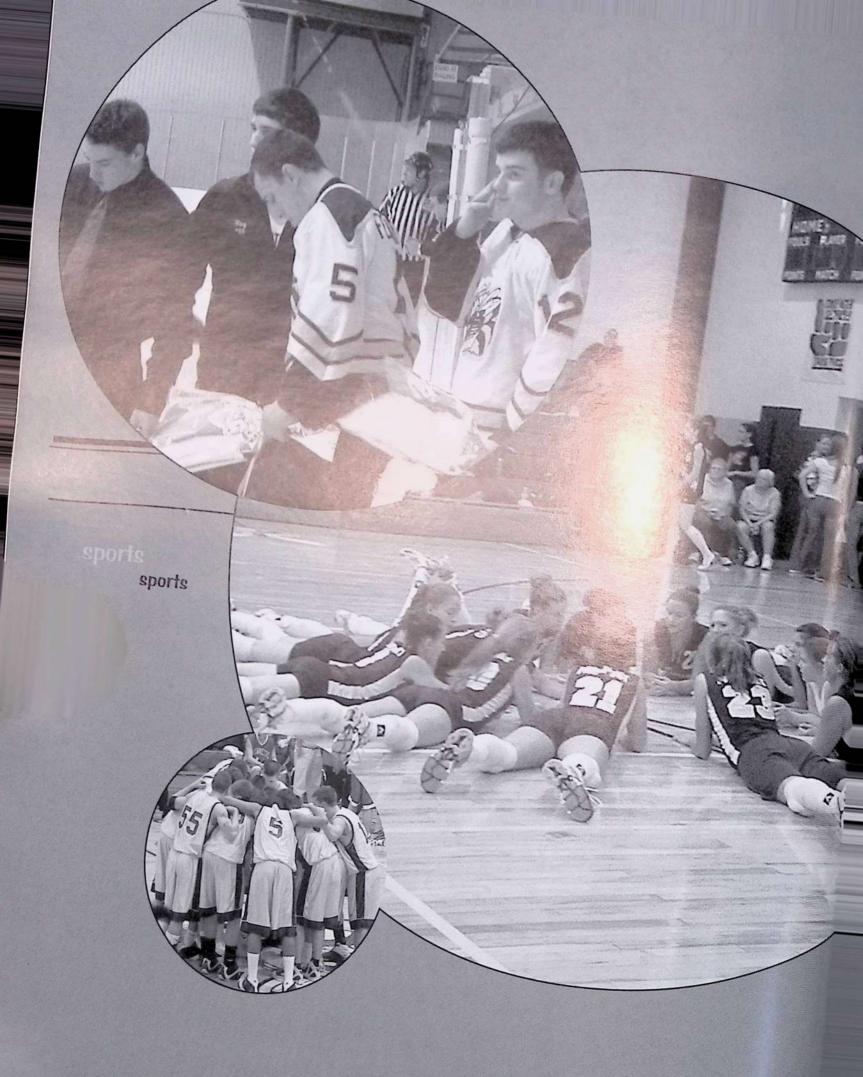

No matter what the occasion, Freeport fans are always there to cheer on their fellow Yellowjackets.

JUNIOR HIGH E

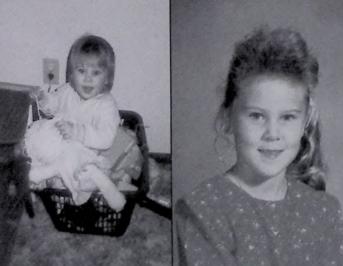

Marisa,
Congratulations! We are so proud of you! You've grown to become more than a senior. You've become a beautiful individual with a passion to succeed in what you set your heart and mind to. Continue to set your standards high, dream big, and settle for nothing less. We love you so much.

Pad and Mom

What happened to our little girl?
The little girl who...

-stayed up all night and had us walk the floors to keep her happy.

-carried her "du du" everywhere she went.

-had to have her socks on just right or she would take a fit.

What happened to our little girl?

She grew into a very beautiful, caring, mature, young woman to whom her parents are so very proud to call her "daughter."

"Honey, always remember to keep your chin up and your shoulders back. Try never to panic but to face your problems with a level head. When life gets difficult (and it will), you know that we will only be one phone call away."

We love you so much, Katie.

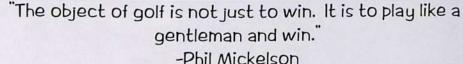

Mom & Dad

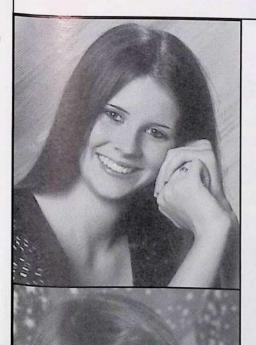

Joe - Phil Mickelson's quote does not just pertain to golf. it pertains to life.

Throughout your short 18 years you have lived up to this standard. You have always seemed to understand that it is not always about winning. It matters how you win. We are so proud of you and the young man that you have become. You have shown compassion, kindness, honesty, and integrity far beyond your year...you have strived to make your own way when it wasn't always so easy to do ... Continue to challenge yourself and "your game." even when it is tough. You already know that it comes from within, not outside. You have a special gift to make a difference; we know you will use it. We wish you great joy and success in your life; no one is more deserving.

We love you. Mom. Dad. and Bethany

Ashley,

We have been so blessed having you for a daughter and sister. It seems like one day you were a sweet little baby and then the next day you were a beautiful young woman. Time goes fast...so make every day count.

Now that you are becoming an adult and leaving childhood behind, remember it will not always be an easy road. Follow your dreams...and say, "Look out world, a new Ashley is coming!"

We are so proud of you! Thanks for all the good memories. Remember God and your family will always be here for you. We love you,

Mom, Fuzz, Josh, Nick, and Kaylie

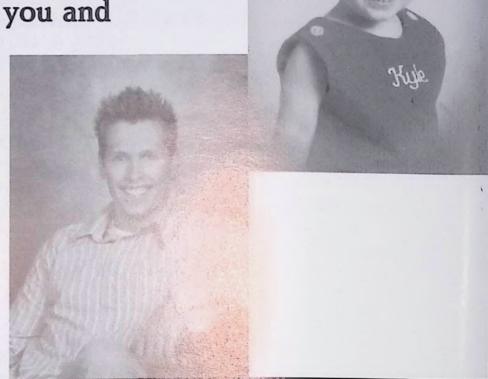

Kyle,

We can't believe how quickly you've grown from a cute little boy to a tall, handsome, young man.

We are so very proud of you and love you so much. We wish you success and happiness.

Love. Dad, Mom, and Morgan

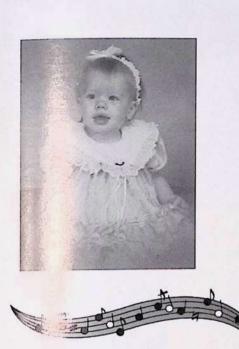

James. We are so proud of you and all you've done and are going to do. Congratulations! We love you.

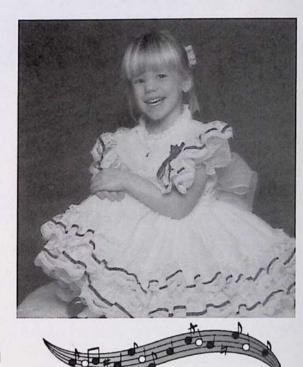

You Will Always Be Our Angel of Music

Samantha, we couldn't be more proud of our little girl and how she has grown into a beautiful young woman, both inside and out. Always stay the way you are. God has given you a special gift for music. You are one of the lucky few, for you have found and embraced your talent for music and know which path you want to follow as you continue your journey through life. We wish you the best of luck as you pursue your interests in the performing arts and music education.

Love, Mom and Dad

Where Did Our Baby Go?

It seems like only yesterday we brought you home and watched you sleep for hours.

Your first smile, first steps and first words are still so clear in our minds.

Where did our baby go?

When you started school, you were a little scared but it didn't take you long to make lots of friends.

Then you started going to birthday parties, sleepovers, Friday night movies and football games.

We didn't mind--you were having fun.

Where did our baby go?

Trendy clothes and fashion have replaced the old t-shirts and dirty sneakers.

Hanging out with your friends is your favorite past time and we get to see you for just moments a day (at least that is what it seems like!)

Where did our baby go?

Now here, she's in our hearts and right beside her is the lovely young woman you have become!

We love you! Mom, Dad, Jason and Dana

Jamie,

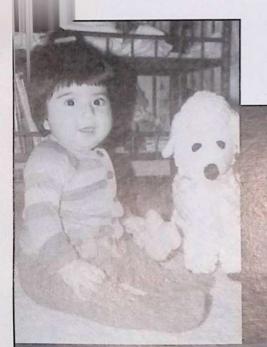

You started as a beautiful baby, talking at 18 months and by 3 there was no stopping you! We always knew you were something special; smart, funny, compassionate, a great friend, loving granddaughter, model sister, and inspiring daughter. These are all the things that make us so very proud of you. God has truly blessed us and has a wonderful plan for you. Follow your dreams, challenge yourself, and make the most of the time you are given. We love you, Jamie Lee! With love and pride,

Tatum Elizabeth,

We don't even know where to begin. October 23, 1987 was the most blessed day of our lives as you made your entrance into this world. All the memories you have provided our family are priceless! From that first day of school and the smile you flashed as you got on the bus we knew that you were on your way to great achievements, but never in our wildest dreams did we ever think that you would achieve so much in just 18 years of your life. At this time it seems appropriate to let you know how proud we are of you and that we know no matter what you aspire to become you will be a success!!!

Melanie-

You have brought such joy to our lives! What a blessing you have been from the day you were born, bringing us so much love and so many smiles, as well as never-ending energy for life. You have grown up to be a beautiful and compassionate young lady, and we are so very proud of you and your many accomplishments. It's been so much fun watching you enjoy life from those preschool days to your high school days and the fun days of gymnastics, running, dance and cheering. As you have watched your older brothers and sister reach for their dreams, now it is your turn. Remember to follow your heart, work hard to achieve all of your goals, and always keep your faith. May God bless and watch over you as you begin this next exciting chapter in your life. Always remember how very much you are loved! And thanks for the memories. We Love You,

Andrew,

We want to thank you for all the gifts of love, pride, commitment, joy, and most of all, the laughter you have brought into our family. You always have been the one person to take the road less traveled and never have been hesitant to take it. We know whatever you do in life you succeed and we will always there to support you. We was you all the best that life has to offer you, but most importantly, God's blessings. You always will remain to be... "Hooch!"

Tom.

As time flies by and has gone by so quickly. I have seen my little boy become an intelligent young man. It's hard to believe you're headed for college. I'm so very-very proud of you. Make the most of each day and continue to make me proud. May the future bring everything you've worked for. I love you and will always be there for you Buddy.

Lauren,
We have watched you grow from an adorable young child to an intelligent, beautiful, and fun-loving young woman. We can't wait to see what the rest of your life brings... there is no limit to your successes. Let your hopes and dreams for the future guide your life.

Remember, your mom will always be nearby.
Love,
Dad and Steven

Lori Beth,
We still remember your first day of school and how excited you were to ride the bus. Hard to believe that

A-D Storm surge

The 2005 hurricane season led to a record 27 named storms – 14 of them hurricanes – with several of them striking the U.S. Gulf and Atlantic coasts. Losses were estimated at $57.6 billion in the U.S. from hurricanes Katrina, Rita and Wilma, with those first two storms throwing more than 500,000 people out of work. Here's a breakdown of some of the damage:

- Katrina struck the tip of Florida before making a beeline for Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama on Aug. 29, destroying homes and businesses and taking more than 1,200 lives.

S. Stroke affects election

Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon suffered a massive stroke three months before March elections. Sharon had formed a new political party, Kadima, and was seeking support at the polls as he attempted to reach a peace agreement with Palestinians.

Tourists began returning to areas in Asia where a tsunami swallowed people, towns and livelihoods on Dec. 26, 2004. Aid came from across the globe to the dozen countries that were hit. In the U.S., the relief effort was headed by an unlikely pair – former presidents George H.W. Bush and Bill Clinton.

U. Paris ablaze

France endured 18 nights of rioting that started in the poor suburbs of Paris. The arsons and other acts of destruction began after the accidental electrocution of two teens who thought police were chasing them, and turned into protests against the government for racial discrimination and unemployment.

V. A new money man

Ben Bernanke was appointed by President Bush to be the new chairman of the Federal Reserve board, a position that directs monetary policy for the U.S. and affects your wallet. Bernanke, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, replaced Alan Greenspan, who was the muchwatched Federal Reserve chairman for 18 years.

A-E Games of Turin

Turin, Italy stepped onto the world stage and played host to the Winter Olympics for two weeks in February. It was the largest Winter Olympics ever, with 2,500 athletes representing 82 countries competing in 84 events.

Long-track speedskating turned into one of the American team's best events. Shani Davis (A) won the Gold medal in the men's 1,000 meters and became the first African-American champion in Winter Olympics history. Former inline skating champion Chad Hedrick became an Olympic speedskating champion the men's 5,000 meters just three years after taking the ice in the sport for ery first time. They were joined at the top of the podium by teammate Joey Cheek, who sprinted to Gold in the men's 500 meters.

Snowboarding was also ruled by the U.S. Shaun White (B), nicknamed "The Plying Tomato" for his bright red hair and acrobatic moves on the extreme sports circuit, won the Gold medal in the Men's Halfpipe. The 19-year old White showed the transports when he fell during qualifying, but he recovered to win the Gold with a flourish in the finals. Other American winners included Hannah Teter la the Women's Halfpipe and Seth Wescott in the Men's Ted Ligety (C) gave the U.S ski team a boost by winning the first Olympic appearance for the relatively unknown Ligety. He became only the fourth American male to win an Alpine Olympic Gold medal.

It was not all positive news for the U.S. Snowboarder Lindsey Jacobellis (D) poignantly summed up the highs and lows of the Olympic journey. Jacobellis was easily racing to victory in the finals of the Women's Cross when she threw too much style into an aerial and crashed. Jacobellis was unable to recover in time to keep her lead, and she was forced to settle for the Silver medal.

F. Men of Steel

The Pittsburgh Steelers capped an improbable championship run by defeating the Seattle Seahawks in Super Bowl XL, 21-10. Pittsburgh was the last team to qualify for the AFC playoffs, and the Steelers made it to the title game by becoming the first team in NFL history to win three straight playoff games on the road. Wide receiver Hines Ward was chosen Super Bowl MVP after he grabbed five catches for 123 yards, including the game-clinching 43-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

G. White Sox champs again...finally

The Chicago White Sox eased the pain of long-suffering Windy City baseball fans by winning their first World Series title in 86 years, sweeping the Houston Astros in four games. Chicago was dominant in the playoffs with an 11-1 record.

I. Danica in the driver's seat

Danica Patrick was not the first woman to ever race in the Indy Racing League, but she might have made the biggest splash, qualifying and finishing fourth at the Indy 500, the highest finish ever by a rookie driver. The 23-year-old Patrick went on to win IRL rookie of the year after several top 10 finishes.

J. A bumpy ride

Cyclist Lance Armstrong pedaled his way through another news-worthy year, winning the Tour de France for a record seventh consecutive time, then retiring from the sport, announcing his engagement and break-up to rock star Sheryl Crow and again being forced to respond to doping allegations from the French media.

USC's Heisman Trophy teammates, running back Reggie Bush and quarterback Matt

Leinart, were not quite good enough to win a third straight college football national title, as the Trojans fell to Texas, 41-38, in the dramatic championship game at the Rose Bowl. Texas quarterback Vince Young stole the show, scoring the game-winning touchdown with 19 seconds left.

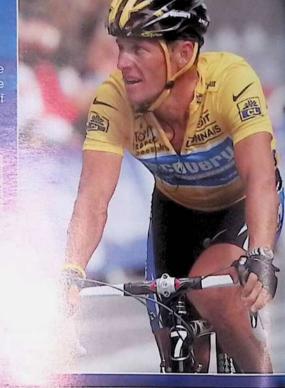

L. No more T.O.

Just one year after helping the Philadelphia Eagles reach the Super Bowl, wide receiver Terrell Owens got suspended from the team in midseason, due to his detrimental conduct. The problems started when the outspoken and controversial Owens got upset that the team would not re-negotiate his contract.

M. Sensational Stewart

Behind a season that included five wins and 24 top 10 finishes, NASCAR driver Tony Stewart won his second Nextel Cup championship. Often referred to in the past as the bad boy of racing due to his short temper, Stewart joined Jeff Gordon as the only multiple Cup winner among active drivers.

This book is a collection of work done by many people and I would like to say thank you to each and every one of you that took time out of your days to finish this book. So much time and effort went in to the making of this yearbook. I am grateful to have a staff willing to give up their time and rearrange their schedules. Thank you all. I would also like to thank Mrs. Copeland for putting up with me for one more year. I certainly couldn't have done this without her.

I would like to congratulate the Class of 2006 and wish you all the best of luck. It has been a great ride, don't let it end here. Thank you for the past. I hope you enjoy the future.

I am proud to say that I took part in making this book. I hope it is enjoyed by all. And if you learn anything from this book, follow your dreams.
