Dedication . . .

So many people come and go,
And there the pleasure ends,
For just a few respond in kind—
These few we call our friends.

They are the blessing of our lives,
These chosen few we know;
Through them our hopes take nobler form,
And by their faith we grow.

And often when the solitude
Brings out our human needs,
We take our friendship rosary
And count its precious beads,

One at a time they walk with us,
And lend a friendly hand,
These ones apart from all the rest,
The few who understand.

—Fairmont Snyder

Foreword . . .

Many days have been filled with joy and sorrow as we have trod in our pathway as student nurses. With our knowledge and learning and through much practice we have left our pre-clinical days. This goal was not reached alone by our own determination but also by the help of God.

"Ask, and it shall be given you, seek, and ye shall find, knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

St. Matthew, Chapter 7, Verse 7

The Florence Nightingale Pledge...

I solemnly pledge myself before God and in the presence of this assembly:

To pass my life in purity and to practice my profession faithfully.

I will abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous, and will not take or knowingly administer any harmful drug.

I will do all in my power to maintain, and elevate the standard of my profession, and will hold in my confidence all personal matters committed to my keeping, and all family affairs coming to my knowledge in the practice of my profession.

With loyalty will I endeavor to aid the physician in his work, and devote myself to the welfare of those committed to my care.

SCHOOL OF NURSING ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICERS
 Miss M. Anderson, director of nursing; Miss A. Montag, associate director of nursing service; and Mrs. G. Painter, associate director of nursing education

Much appreciation is given to our faculty group for their continued guidance and patience. Through their efforts in teaching, they have helped us in attaining our goal in a nursing career. Through three important years of our lives they have strived with patience and understanding in helping us to become better nurses and better citizens.

HEAD NURSES AND SUPERVISORS

The head nurses and supervisors help direct our activities while we are on duty as freshman students and continuing through our senior year. Considering their many other duties and obligations, we wish to commend them for a job well done.

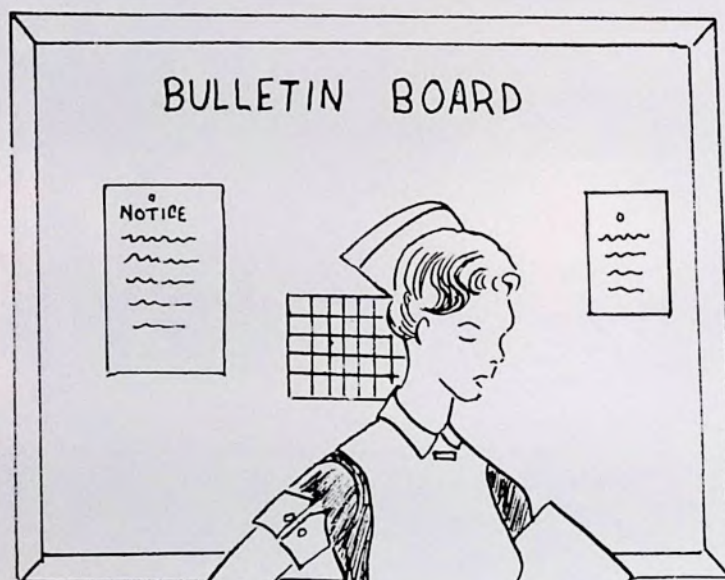

NURSING SCHOOL COMMITTEE

The Nursing School Committee is a group of men and women interested in helping to plan a program which provides adequate education, health supervision, and social welfare for each student. Committee aims are to improve the educational facilities so that the students may be taught the principles of good patient care.

Classes . . .

Much of our time during the past three years was spent in the classroom. It was here that we learned the principles, basic procedures, and theories that gave us a background for practicing skilled nursing care to patients. In the hospital on ward units, we put into practice the things that were taught us in the classrooms thus making the two interrelated. Our classes also consisted of two affiliations which took us to Children's Hospital in Pittsburgh for pediatric nursing and Mayview Hospital for our psychiatric nursing. On these services we learned to understand the needs and to care for the ill child and patients who are mentally disturbed. The knowledge and experiences we have learned both in the classroom and on the ward units will remain with us and guide us in our future services.

Juniors . . .

We've had our fun—we've had our play—
And also had our glorious day—
For we now have a stripe upon our cap,
And with God's help—we are Juniors
at last.

Affiliation days fill most of the year,
Through which we'll go with great cheer
Knowing we'll soon be midway on our path
To becoming graduates—again we say—
at last.

Freshmen . . .

The Freshman year is filled with much joy
 and tears,
 For failing to reach our only goal was one
 of our many fears;
 But now we know, with our guidance and knowledge,
 That we will be able to fulfill our challenge.

With our white cap placed upon our heads,
 This due to our instructors by whom we were led,
 We now await our highlight, the dance
 of May,
 For us it will be a most happy day.

Activities . . .

Activities of we student nurses at Allegheny Valley Hospital play an integral part in our lives. An event holding great interest is the annual Christmas party given to the personnel and students by the Medical and Hospital staffs.

All classes join in contributing hand made articles and baked goods for the annual Christmas Bazaar. This provides funds for dances and picnics held during the following months.

In between formal parties, spare time is spent playing ping pong, listening to music and watching our favorite TV programs. Participation in strenuous activities is available at the local Y.M.C.A.

Our governing body is the Student Council. It functions as a "sounding board" for our grievances and problems. Each student has a voice in this Council.

These activities throughout our years of study have contributed to our physical and mental health and helped make us well adjusted young women.

ALUMNAE

Graduates of the Allegheny Valley Hospital School of Nursing who have become licensed are eligible for membership in the Alumnae Association. This organization was established in 1942. Its objectives are to mutually help and improve professional work and promote good fellowship among the graduates of the school, to advance the interests of the profession of the Allegheny Valley Hospital School of Nursing, and to cooperate with District No. 6 of the Pennsylvania Nurses' Association in promoting the professional and educational advancement of nursing. The Association meets once a month. In the spring the annual Alumnae-Senior Banquet and Dance is held to honor the graduating Seniors.

Class Prophecy

Scene: Marlene Peterson Beatty's living room

Time: 2 P.M. — 10 years hence

"Oh! It seems like ages since I last saw you."

"Well, after all, Connie, it has been ten years."

"Hum! I can see you've done all right for yourself. Your twins are simply adorable and how well-mannered they are!"

"We think so, too, but then all parents are prejudiced. Tell me, have you heard anything more about the kids we graduated with? Oh, before I forget, is it really true that Marie Zebrak is head nurse on First East?"

"Yes, and did you know that Anna Mae Olczak is charge nurse in the Emergency Room? We sure had a progressive class with those two and Florence Zubik as instructor in psychiatry."

"Oh, and you'll never guess who I saw on the plane coming home! Val Jean Sabow, Melva Bailey and Faye Padget are flying for Capital Airlines now."

"And when I took the twins to the Well Baby Clinic, Ruth Kinniburgh and Charlotte Ferkan were there assisting Dr. Lace."

"You should see Joan Tarcha Russo's boys. Only four more to go and she'll have her own baseball team. The last time I heard from Jo Ann Stanko, you'd have thought she was raising her own kindergarten."

"Betty Weckerly Conto is now working as a dental assistant to her husband. Nancy Tressler just won a title for the shortest nurse in Western Pennsylvania. Marie Summerville is furnishing mink coats for all of her classmates."

"Patty Brown Formaini's husband is a barber and they are giving free hair cuts to her classmates and their husbands. Janet Hepler is racing at Indianapolis these days and winning of course. Joanne Walker Hebeler is becoming quite the contractor in helping her husband in building their home."

"Judy Coggon is working in a doctor's office in Kittanning. Sandy Johnson is a buyer for women's apparel in a department store. Joyce Berlin and Phyllis Coleman are now with the Air Force Nurses Corps. Marion Miller opened her own library in Pittsburgh last week."

"Shirley Goldscheitter is holding square dances every Friday night for teen-agers. Carolyn Hollenbaugh is a camp nurse in Allegheny County. Marie Balbo is a private duty nurse to the President. Kathy Gollaz is an artist for the American Journal of Nursing."

"Lois Myers is a supervisor at Allegheny General Hospital. Patty Beck is now nursing in the southern states. Eileen Gaydos has her own beauty salon and Carolyn Jones is part owner of a sports car agency."

"Donna Irvine Arbott and Nancy Rhines Kreszinski are now managing a day nursery for children under five. Dianne Bowman Coffin has taken on a full time job as housewife and mother. Donna Blackburn Foster and her husband are now owners of a chain of gasoline stations."

"Connie, would you like to stay for dinner? We're having chicken; one I got from Eileen Dunmire Weaver's chicken farm."

"No, thank you, in half an hour I have to catch a plane leaving for Hawaii."

"It has been nice seeing you again, Connie. Please write soon and do not be so long coming back again."

"I will. Bye."

"Bye."

Class History

On September 11, 1956, 50 of us stepped through the doorways of Allegheny Valley Hospital Nurses' Residence. With eager expressions on our faces and fear in our hearts, we stumbled over the load of suitcases and boxes up three flights of steps to the hide-away which was our living quarters for the months to come. Our first order for the day was a required attendance at an initiation party the following evening. Little did we realize that at this occasion, we would see our powdered noses become skinned as we pushed toilet tissue down the auditorium floor; a tornado would strike our newly arranged rooms; and in the middle of the night all of us were to be summoned by the seniors to report to the bathroom for "P Call."

"If you think I'm coming back Sunday, you're crazy," was the ever popular remark during the remainder of the week as we proceeded with our grueling orientation. We tried very hard to remember who was who and what was what. We walked to and from classes collecting books and supplies until at the end of the day all that could be seen of us were our eyes, peering over the mountain of material in front of us.

Our first big opportunity to practice our learnings came one day as we were scheduled for ward practice. Our knees became rubber and our nerves were on edge as we began our duties. This experience showed us truly why we had come into nursing.

After a most trying six months, the longest of our lives, we reached first base. On the wet, rainy evening of March 29, 1957, we received our caps. Many of our friends and relatives joined us at this happy event.

In May of the same year our class sponsored the "Stardust Ball," the traditional May Dance honoring our Senior Queen of the May, Kathy English. All of us looked our prettiest and danced to the music of an unforgettable orchestra and soloist.

Summer passed with those extra privileges and no classes. During this summer, the hospital began its building program.

In September of 1957, our second base was reached by obtaining our corner stripe which made us Junior students. During this year we split up into our special serves, starting with the Diet Kitchen and those luscious thick milkshakes and the Operating Room whose walls reverberated the exclamation, "Get those — — — — hands off the Mayo!"

In October of 1957, sad farewells were passed as the first group of our class packed bags and left Allegheny Valley Hospital to go to Children's Hospital and Third Infants; then to Mayview and those fourteen weekends! The remainder of this year we spent keeping in touch with each other by writing from Children's, Mayview and Allegheny Valley Hospitals.

At 6:00 P.M., September 7, 1958, our third base was reached.

During the traditional "Blackbanding Ceremony" we received our long black velvet bands, making us proud Seniors. We could hardly eat anything from the buffet table due to our anxiety in receipt of our bands.

During the past three years, we have had many changes in our faculty. Miss Zetter and Miss Puett resigned in March of 1957. In the spring of 1957 we gained Mrs. Karrs and Mrs. Stetter to teach us medical-surgical nursing, Miss Anderson to direct our activities and Miss Hebel to assist on the ward units. We proceeded at a status quo until the spring of 1959 when Mrs. Painter, Miss Rowe and Mrs. Steele resigned. During the last few months we have gained Mrs. Bissel and Miss Pompa.

Starting out with fifty, we have dwindled down to thirty-three plus the four we gained from the Class of 1958. As each of our classmates left for one reason or another, we shed a few tears and as time passes, we wonder where each is and what each is doing.

As we reminisce about people in our past, we think of our own TV hero, Mr. Huey, who spent much time flashing his light in parked autos and asking, "Are you going in here?" and checking doors of the Nurses' Residence to prevent the entrance of any unknown visitors. We shall always remember with pride our chosen Queen of the May, Melva Bailey who was crowned at the May Dance on May 15, 1959.

As accepted activities during our three years together we will never forget the Annual Bazaars, the Hospital Christmas Parties, our summer picnics and many others.

Graduation for us will come in September. Our lives will channel in many directions, but in spirit we shall remain together as the Class of 1959.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to Miss Anderson, our instructors, supervisors, graduate nurses, and all who helped us through these three years. A very special appreciation and thanks we wish to give to Mrs. Brownfield, our Class Sponsor.
