Nineteen Hundred Sixty Five

*We, the Senior Class of
Allegheny Valley Hospital
Present to You*

The White Cap

1965

Miss Joy Harvey, R. N.

Dedication

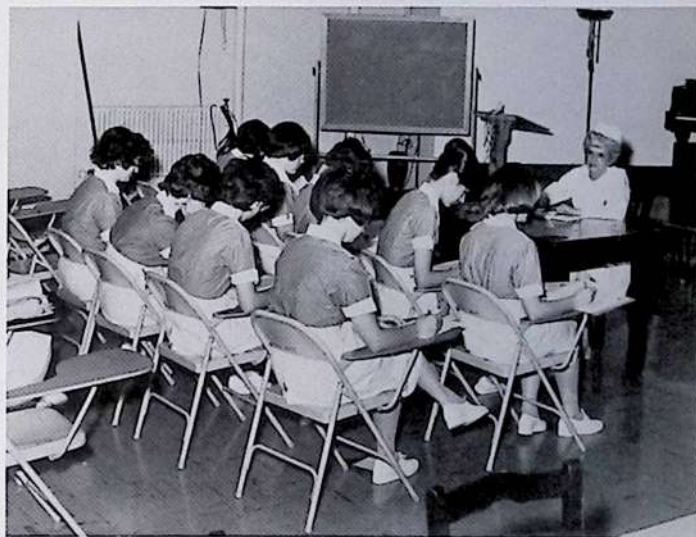

We, the Class of 1965, of Allegheny Valley Hospital, School of Nursing, dedicate our year-book, "The White Cap," to you, Miss Ivy Harvey.

Whenever we needed guidance, you were there; whenever we needed help while working on the department, you could always be counted on. You shared our woes as well as our joys, and we always knew you cared.

Over our three years of schooling we have grown to love you and all your small favors and ways—your raised eyebrows followed by the wink and knowing smile have cheered us in our lowest moments.

May we always remember your teachings and examples so that we may follow in your footsteps as a dedicated nurse.

*Thank You,
Miss Harvey*

ADMINISTRATION

Administration

On behalf of administration and the Board of Directors, please accept the congratulations and best wishes to all of the student body in our nursing school. We are proud and happy of the wonderful scholastic achievement that was made by the Class of 1964 and look forward to continued achievement by the other classes. The cooperation and understanding displayed by all the students has been a source of constant pleasure and pride to all of us connected with the School of Nursing.

John B. Richardson
Administrator

Personnel

Mr. E. Bevilacqua, Assistant Administrator; Mrs. A. Muchlado, Accounting Department; Mr. E. Morone, Credit Manager; Miss N. Rzczkowski, Purchasing Agent.

We express our sincere gratitude to the hospital personnel, for without their efficient management our hospital could not function properly.

School of Nursing

The Faculty of Allegheny Valley Hospital School of Nursing joins me in wishing the very best of success and happiness to all of you in both your personal and professional lives. We share with you the sense of personal satisfaction and accomplishment you must feel in successfully completing your educational program.

Mrs. June Bissell

Don't look now, but we're being watched.

We haven't made a mistake since 1936, we're just testing the nurses.

Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble.

Heaven help the Juniors!!!!

Ohhh, this chair's hard.

Oops, they forgot the sugar.

And those students complain about the food.

I'm fed up with this place, I can't take it anymore.

I decided to stay!!!

But they said it was pop!

Judy, wake up!!!!

Security is a blanket, when letters have to do.

Affiliation

Psychiatric

Much of our time at Mayview was spent in learning to understand and to care for the mentally ill. This also made it possible for us to give good emotional care and support to the patient in the general hospital.

Pediatric

Taking care of children has revealed to us a new type of nursing. The emotions we felt revealed a strong bond with each child who in turn rewarded us with the experience of joy, sadness, and sympathy.

Student Council

FIRST ROW: R. Cromie, C. Rzeczkowski, E. Binkerd, D. Cooper, B. Hornberger, L. Harmon, S. Goline.

SECOND ROW: E. Grantz, R. Reichard, C. Olijar, C. Barrett, C. McNeel, P. Plyler, B. Wink, P. Devers, H. Croll.

THIRD ROW: R. Ungor, V. Smith, R. Walewski, C. Bellinotti, A. Kinniburgh.

Composed of elected members of each class, the Student Council functions as the governing section of the Student Government organization. Through the efforts of its officers, committees and faculty advisor, its accomplishments benefit each student.

A Student's Day

Waking each morning to the sound of a buzzing alarm begins once more a student nurses day.

The first gathering of the day is at the breakfast table where we wonder what the day will bring.

Thoughts of the day run through our minds as we listen attentively to morning report.

Taking the TPR starts the morning routine as we cheerfully ask, "How are you feeling this morning?"

Pouring our medications with care and caution so Mrs. Jones doesn't get Mr. Black's pill.

We feel so efficient going on rounds until we have to reply, "Doctor, I can't take verbal orders."

When the tables turn and we are ill, we go to Health Service to get some pills.

We check our mailbox each morning to see if "our certain someone" wrote us a letter.

During classes we study diligently to learn all of the subjects needed to become a good nurse.

A "must" on our schedule is stopping in the housemothers office to read the paper.

In the evening many hours are spent studying in preparation for the next days classes.

The lounge is the meeting place where we all gather to watch T.V., listen to records, or just talk and have fun.

Taking a shower is a necessary chore, giving us a chance to wash all the problems of the day away.

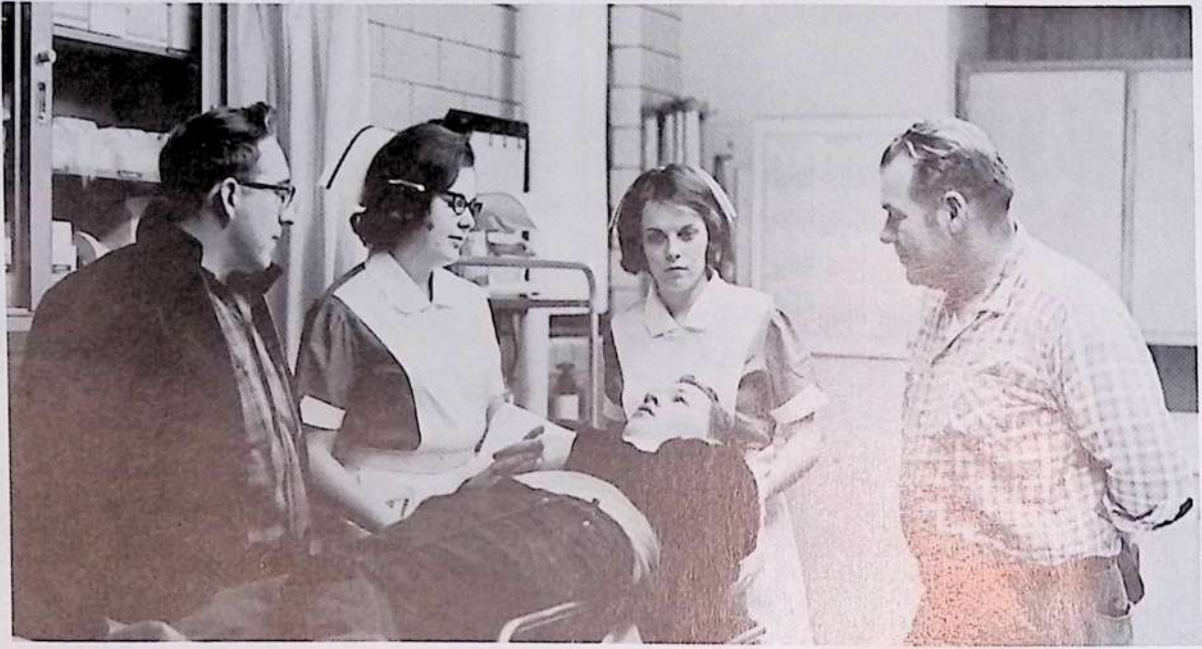

Putting our hair up nightly is a very important part of our day, so we will look our very best for whatever tomorrow might bring.

Going to bed for a good night's sleep ends the busy day of a student nurse.

Class Will

- I, Barbara Ando, will my experience in obstetrics and pediatrics to Alyce Jurasko Schrack.
- I, Cathy Barrett, will my loquaciousness to "Pickle."
- I, Darlene Berrang, will my proficiency at Mayview to anyone who wants it.
- I, Kathy Colin, leave Room 279 S.F.S. to anyone who wants to meet their love.
- I, Judy Crose, leave my permanent excuse from Gym to my little sister, Donna Cooper.
- I, Susanne Hoover DeFalco, leave the long and patient wait for the "other ring" to Patty Devers.
- I, Joyce Demharter, leave my swimming ability to Bonnie Hake.
- I, Elaine Grantz, leave the study of the arts of nursing to join the practice of the arts of marriage.
- I, Kay Marshall, leave my security blanket to Anne Kinniburgh for all the long lonely evenings ahead.
- I, George Schaeffer, leave my fashionable shower attire to Binky.
- I, Dorothy Smith, leave my position of the student with the longest hair to Bobby Walewski.
- I, Carol McNeel, leave my peppermint shoes to anyone with the habit of putting their foot in their mouth constantly.
- I, Margie Meyer, leave to Joanne Pavlik my ability to dive and a mailbox full of letters.
- I, June Moore, will my six beautiful, well-used ash trays to the American Cancer Society.
- I, Darlene O'Brien, leave my unmatched agility in the graceful art of tumbling to anyone who has a hard head.
- I, Chris Olijar, will my writer's cramp and 14 months of waiting to Lori Cleis.
- I, Polly Plyler, will my worn-out tires to Binky for the long trips home.
- I, Ruthie Reichard, will my torn uniforms to anyone else with a broken arm.
- I, Betty Ragolski, will my natural blonde hair to posterity.
- I, Carol Rzeczkowski, will my lack of coordination to next year's "Miss Contusion", Joanne Wellard.
