Nursing – A Key to Success

*Three years ago we started on
Our pathway to success.
In hopes that now the end we'd reach
With much shared happiness.*

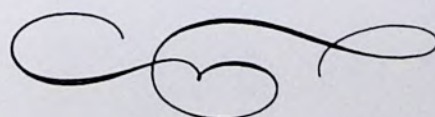

*Although the end is quite near,
We have really just begun.
There's happiness and memories
Of things that we have done.*

*That senior pride with bands of black
After "probie" days without our caps.
The o.r. scrubs and endless nights,
With daylight shift and noontime naps.*

*And though we have not reached the end
We are much more mature,
And have a key that guides our way
By unlocking many doors.*

*The greater thing about this key
Aside that it is ours,
We'll have this key forevermore
In minutes, days and hours.*

Miss Connie Barkowski

*We, the class of 1969, dedicate
"The White Cap"
to you, our parents.*

New place, new setting, new faces

We were all nervous. Ready to quit before we started.

Who encouraged us?

Remember going home with all our problems?

Who listened?

Remember capping?

Who was more proud than we?

We thought three years was an eternity,

But . . .

time flies . . .

We're grown now,

Mature young nurses ready to face the world.

How did we ever make it?

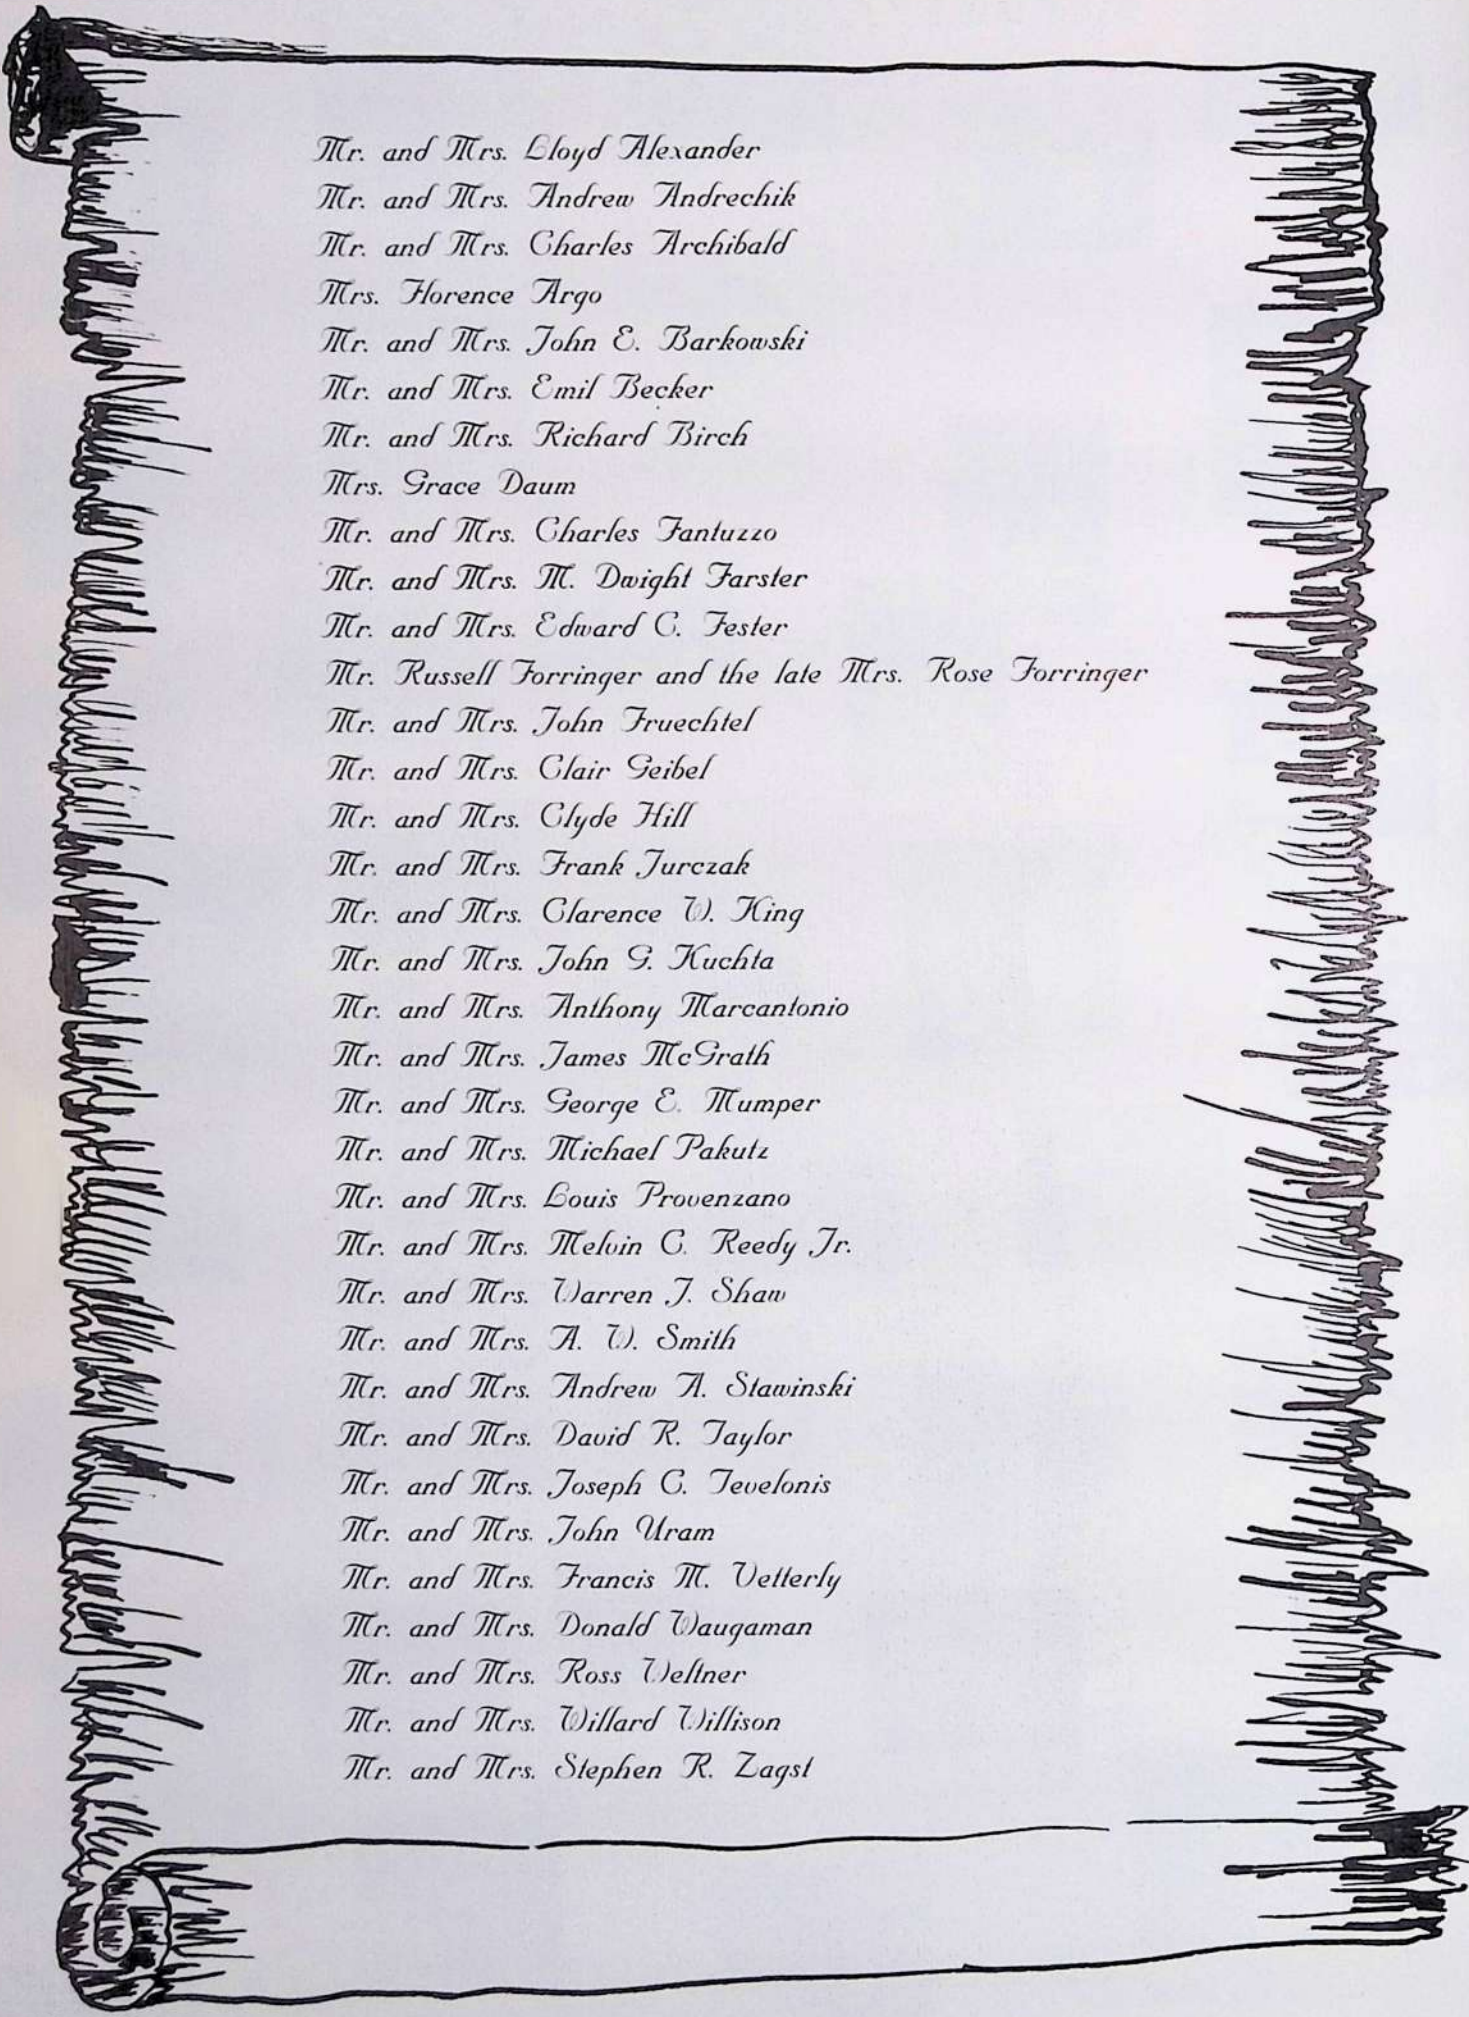

Who gave us the love, understanding and

Encouragement we needed to attain the Key to Success?

Who . . . Our Parents.
