The White Cap

presented by the Senior Class of 1971

Allegheny Valley Hospital
Natrona Heights, Pennsylvania

We, the class of 1971, dedicate this year book to peace and brotherhood:

Lord, my soul is not at rest. There are many questions for which I can find no answers—but I have been seeking these answers alone instead of with You.

Lord, I love being alive. I believe in the goodness of this world, but many things about it trouble me. Why is there hatred and war? Why do starving masses exist? Why is there loneliness and bitterness? Why can't each man be loved simply for what he is—Your creation—each man and woman unique. Why can we look at a field of flowers and appreciate each for its individual characteristics—yet we can't look at one another and appreciate our own differences.

What does it take to know peace? Where does peace begin? If it were possible to at this moment stop all wars, destroy all arms, and make each man identical, would this mean everlasting peace? Is that the root of the problem or does the root go much deeper? Should not mankind be like a fine-tuned choir—each member responsible for his own contribution and yet sensitive to those around him. Each man willing to compensate for the next man's deficit, each willing to rejoice in the beauty of this same man's unique contribution.

Help me to forget my devotion to self. Give me the strength to answer another man's hostility with understanding. Peace must begin with me—within my heart. I am but a small part of humanity, yet I can accomplish much. Like a tiny pebble tossed on placid waters, waves of love and good will can radiate from me to mankind around me. Perhaps all of mankind will become united in this great cause, and in the ashes of war, bitterness, and hatred plant a tree of peace.

An Outstretched Hand

Each of us was made by God
and some of us grew tall.
Others stood out in the wind their branches bent and fell.
Those of us who walk in light must help the ones in darkness up.
For that's what life is all about and love is all there is to life.

Each of us was made by God
beautiful in His mind's eye.
Those of us that turned out sound should look across our shoulders once and help the weak ones to their feet.

It only takes an outstretched hand.

Foreword

Our two and one half years in nursing school has tried to enrich our body and soul to think of the well-being of others. It is both an honor and a privilege to be the first students graduating from the accelerated program. Proud because we have been chosen to be the 'pilot class' at Allegheny Valley to take the responsibility of learning the same amount of knowledge in a shortened amount of time. Being the first class to pave the way for the new program, we have strived to be the best of all those preceeding us and of those to come.

Our freedom comes sooner and we rejoice—but do we—or do we unconsciously enjoy someone making decisions for us? Do we dare rise from our adolescent world and function as responsible adults.

So on this last day of studenthood, we pray for guidance and reassurance as we rush forward with confidence to meet unknown challenges. Therefore, we thank our parents, the administration, and all those who have encouraged and nutured the fulfillment of our dream. . .to become a registered nurse.

Old friends,
Old friends
Sat on their park bench
Like bookends.

Can you imagine us
Years from today,
Sharing a park bench quietly?
How terribly strange
To be seventy.

Old friends.
Memory brushes the same years.
Silently sharing the same fear . . .

Your children are not your children.
They are the sons and daughters of Life's longing for itself.

They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts,

For they have their own thoughts.

You may house their bodies but not their souls,

For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow, which you cannot visit, not even in your dreams.

You may strive to be like them, but seek not to make them like you.

For life goes not backward nor tarries with yesterday.

You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.

The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far.

Let your bending in the archer's hand
be for gladness;

For even as He loves the arrow that flies,
so He loves also the bow that is stable.

As the Class of '71 exits, they leave . . .

- I, Mary Ann Sutura, leave my three weeks in L&D without a scrub, to anyone willing to work unscheduled evenings.
- I, Doucher, will three inches of my height to Mouse so she can be taller, and to the Juniors who worked with me during my T.L. serve, all my exciting experiences.
- I, Rose, leave my fond memories of the people I met here, to the Hall of Fame.
- I, Millie, will to any unlucky Junior my extreme loss of control during speeches.
- I, Hevnar, will my forehead to Laura K.
- I, Mauro, will my quick temper to any unsuspecting person.
- I, B. Lang, will my crocheting ability to anyone who has the incentive to finish my skirt, afghan, scarf, rug, etc.
- I, Kwitkowski, leave behind my double room and its noisy occupant.
- I, L. Heilman, will my happy married life to people who are in love.
- I, Fass, leave my protuberant cheeks to my little sis, Cathy King, and my red bikini underwear to Clay.
- I, Mellon, leave my passion for anything purple and my go-anywhere, do-anything slippers.
- I, Huth, leave all my autoparts and record number of visits to car lots to any girl who has a boyfriend crazy about cars.
- I, Booga, leave my gas tank lock to anyone taking her car to Mayview.
- I, Zimmerwoman, leave all my Catholic friends to whoever wants them.
- I, Fini, will my front tooth to anyone who swept it up.
- Carr, Hoffer, and Miller will their 'dinner dresses' to anyone who can stand them.
- I, Carol Ann Wargo, being sober and sound of mind, do hereby bequeath my beloved 'bud vase' to any student nurse who appreciates its warmth, beauty and good taste as much as I do.
- I, Henry, will my basketball height and grace to the Tree's little sister.
- I, Murph, leave my 'Dial M for Murph' service to anyone who can meet the demands of service.
- Flan leaves her seat at the Park to Cindy T.
- I, Peg Hoover, will all the time I've spent getting to work to anyone who can stay awake at 5:30 in the morning.
- I, Beverly Cribbs, will all my phone calls to anyone who was brave enough to get me up.
- I, Sheila Riesmeyer, will 'unspoken opinions' to anyone who is afraid to state theirs.
- I, Ryan, leave AVH with the patter of little feet behind me.
- Stef and Bator leave their calendars to another year of fun and frolic.
- Collins and Ryznar leave their third floor hall window to anyone who has two hours a night to hang out of it.
- I, Miller, leave my enema procedure to Smith and Gips.
- I, Wolfe, leave my singing voice to anyone who carries a bucket.
- Sue C. leaves her sleeping position to any knee or chest that wants it.
- I, Smudley, leave my immaculate room and my fantastic floor evaluations to Lois and the family.

It touched the best within us. It was not an act of conquest; it was an act of love.

Neil A. Armstrong took the first step on the moon. This proves that man's limitations aren't set at his horizons because man accepts no limitations.

. . . and peace will guide the planets and love will steer the stars.

Hobgoblins and Ghouls Haunted AVH on Halloween Night

Remember

we had a party in Flan's room without her we actually did bib cards by ourselves the maids woke you up on your morning to sleep in Room 242 was the AVH battleground the weekend trips to Geneva
when our Thursday nights were reserved for Tom Jones Gloria Wolfe regurgitated in her O.R. mask we sang "Happy Birthday" to Mike every night at supper
the "main lounge gang" existed Rose's first blind date
the famous duet, "If I were King of the Forest!"
Murf tried to light the wrong end of the Bunsen burner"

Zimmerwoman and Sheila didn't fight
Arlene was in the "Miss Allegheny County" contest the "Lee" sisters and us as "Probies" the smokers of the class were a minority we used to go to breakfast when Deuser stood up in student government and said, "That isn't true!"
the magnificent seven had a slumber party in Rose's room when Mel woke up numb on one side because of her slanted bed Mike wanted to hijack a plane to Florida all those parties at Murf's when Hoffer "went down" to the floor when a doctor told her to in the O.R.
Carr, Hoffer, and Miller volunteered for a committee only Mellon can prevent fires

Sue C's mask
Bator's turtles? Millie's cats? Hevnar's pumpkin?
the free "fuel" Booga had put in her gas tank at Mayview Hevnar's and Mellon's carmel apple business Miskinis's distaste for certain words the "Pusher!"
we used to work weekends
all the trips to DiCaro's Pizza Shop when Rose surfed on her throw rugs we went to the Diet Lab and yelled, "Put four more in!"
when Polly and Sue were awake
the AVH girls were last to class and first to lunch at Mayview

When

when Ryznar got dressed in the closet
Fass pulled Hevnar's wig off in class Zimmerwoman fell into the lake at the picnic
when Mary Ann's rabbit had a positive "Rabbit Test" Carol Wargo's frequent sitz baths
the six to eight o'clock privileges as "Probies" the "welcome shower" given to us in our freshman year by the juniors Mellon's purple blouse Cribb's high "cholesterol" level when Hoover won the safe driving award our pre-capping terrors and then our surprise capping party from the seniors the Florence Nightengale pledge

when Colwell joined the animal protection league the five hour fire drill
when Paul McCartney was dead
Smudley shaved her legs and had a severe blood loss Mellon for Choir President!
when two phones were shorted out during a probie water battle the surprise decoration of rollers and shaving cream in Arlene's room when Lang sprained her ankle while doing a cartwheel into the wall Ruth Huth became a sister again
when Hutch and Millie transferred to AVH
Dudes and Hoff stole Flan's cantaloupe and got busted Hoof's diary

chemistry class, Mr. Walsh, and all his interesting lectures our big sis's——Ha Ha Ha!
when Sue C. used to polish everyone's shoes but now nothing!
Henry was chased by a little boy carrying a big stick Hevnar's red hair
the "Turkey Trot" at Penn State Millie's inability to fold an AVH cap the nights painting Kitty's apartment when Nancy Condon was the only married woman in the class when Mike thought the Inhalation Therapist was an orderly when there was a mass murder scare and exactly 12 students were in the residence we got our stripes
when Fass was crowned Miss Thighland
"oh, for the life of a student."

To Our Underclassmen:

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you dare not, you don't;
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the man who thinks he can.

Time it was
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph.
Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.
